DAVID BOWIE IN L.A.

A SPACE ODDITY

Brandon Wander

David Bowie, our boy Ziggy Stardust, fluttered into LA not to the gentle swaying of a glass space ship but by bus and the Queen Elizabeth. You see, the Queen of Glitter Rock takes a Queen ship across the sea, to play in the shadows of Long Beach's Queen Mary, in front of 10,000 fans this Saturday. The title track from the new album, "Space Oddity," bodes well for the entrance of our Pink Floyd fan. The tune has that lilting rhythm that fans of psychedelic rock will love. The song's lyrics hint at a sense of longing and searching, much like the character of Mr. Jones in a scene from the film of the same name. Bowie's unique sound and style have made him a legend in the world of music.

Ziggy Stardust, with his spiky hair, sunglasses, and colorful outfits, was a true icon of the early 1970s. His music was a blend of rock, pop, and space-age themes, and his performances were as much a spectacle as his music. Ziggy's look was as distinctive as his sound, with his spiky hair, wide-brimmed hat, and colorful clothes. His performances were充满了 energy and creativity, and his music has stood the test of time.

The title track from the new album, "Space Oddity," is a perfect example of Ziggy's unique style. The song's lyrics hint at a sense of longing and searching, much like the character of Mr. Jones in a scene from the film of the same name. Bowie's unique sound and style have made him a legend in the world of music.

The show is sure to be a hit with fans of all ages, and a must-see for anyone who appreciates the unique style of David Bowie. So don't miss your chance to see Ziggy Stardust in person - he's only here for one night!
