THE
KENTUCKY THOUSAND
A Basic Library of Kentuckiana in Microfiche

Kentucky will celebrate her biennial in 1974 and 1975. An official commission has already been appointed to organize the celebration, and societies and educational institutions are already beginning to make plans to observe the 200th anniversary of the settlements at Harrodsburg and Booneborough.
Schools and colleges are thinking in terms of special exercises for students, and local civic organizations and study clubs will have become and discussion groups on the history of the Com-muneworth. Except in a few major centers such as Lexington, Louisville, and Bowling Green, resources for the study of Kentucky history are relatively weak. For over fifteen years the Lost Cause Press has been developing a basic library of Kentuckiana in microfiche; and it will be our contribution to the Biennial to offer some thousand fundamental pieces which are a cornerstone for study and research in our history.
Here is a comprehensive library of Kentuckiana which cannot be duplicated elsewhere. Nearly all of the titles are out of print, and many are unique copies of depositories such as the Library of Congress, the University of Kentucky, and the collections of private individuals. Not only the history of the Commonwealth is documented, but also the literature, the geography, the politics and government, the art and music, and other aspects of our culture.
And it cannot be too strongly emphasized that Kentucky, the frontier for immigration to the Ohio and Mississippi valleys, indeed, to the entire west, is literally the mother of the west.
