A guide to sales and bargains

Have I got a deal for you!

Suzanne Coney—

Where can you find scenic windmills, a live elf & affectionate houseplants?

Scrimshaw Square of course!

And when you venture through our twelve rare and unusual shops, the adventure broadens. You'll wander down a winding passage of 19th-century American, of shops and shoppes.

Scrimshaw Square is an accumulation of original arts and crafts, custom designs and earthy reproductions.

Al Overton, Jr., 4th round winner of the Amatour Open, offers advice on dealing with a golfing partner.

North and South grapes for today's round, changing the game of the season's end. The North is the overton's ball, the South is the partner's. The North is the one to play with, the South is the one to hit against. The North is the one to challenge, the South is the one to encourage. The North is the one to support, the South is the one to advise. The North is the one to cheer, the South is the one to criticise. The North is the one to take the lead, the South is the one to follow. The North is the one to go against, the South is the one to go with. The North is the one to be proud of, the South is the one to be grateful to. The North is the one to respect, the South is the one to admire. The North is the one to be admired, the South is the one to be imitated. The North is the one to be followed, the South is the one to be surpassed. The North is the one to be respected, the South is the one to be appreciated. The North is the one to be esteemed, the South is the one to be valued. The North is the one to be envied, the South is the one to be praised. The North is the one to be admired, the South is the one to be envied. The North is the one to be praised, the South is the one to be admired.
