HANDBY PERSONS

"Girls are handed dolls; boys are given hammers to play with... a girl isn't going to build up muscle carrying dolls around." So he teaches leverage added to strength. "With leverage you can move the world; if you just get back far enough."
BOB DYLAN IN LOS ANGELES END OF A CONCERT, END OF A TOUR

Steve Pesonen

The entire stage is glowing in red and yellow and the band is moving very slowly from side to side in staccato patterns as they play. It's a scene that I've never seen before. The audience is cheering wildly, and the air is filled with a kind of electric energy. It's a moment that feels almost surreal.

...wearing a suit and tie...The audience is electrified as they hear the first notes of the song. They are on their feet, waving lights and shouting encouragement. It's a moment that feels almost spiritual.

...a man in a suit...The audience is cheering wildly, and the air is filled with a kind of electric energy. It's a moment that feels almost surreal.
