What To Do With Your Visiting Mother-in-law

How about sending her to the abandoned tourmaline Queen Mine in Pala, 30 miles north of Escondido?

—Jane Wiensman Stein

If your sister, brother, aunt, uncle or favorite nephew or niece is coming to San Diego, and you think they will be here long enough to take in a few of the top sightseeing spots, you might want to consider the following tour itinerary for your guests. We have picked out a few of the top spots to visit in San Diego and have included a brief description of each place.

1. Balboa Park: The heart of San Diego's cultural and historic district, Balboa Park is home to the San Diego Museum of Art, the San Diego Natural History Museum, and the world-famous San Diego Zoo.

2. Petco Park: Home of the San Diego Padres, Petco Park is a modern and breathtaking stadium that offers great views of the city.

3. La Jolla Cove: A picturesque bay with crystal-clear waters and white sand beaches, La Jolla Cove is a popular destination for sightseeing and swimming.

4. Mission Beach: A beachfront neighborhood that offers a variety of outdoor activities, including surfing and fishing.

5. Old Town: A historic neighborhood that offers a glimpse into San Diego's past, Old Town is home to many charming shops and restaurants.

6. Coronado: A beautiful island just off the coast of San Diego, Coronado offers stunning views of the city and the Pacific Ocean.

We hope this itinerary helps you plan the perfect trip for your guests. Happy touring!
