LETTERS

EXPLANATIONS ON STRAIGHT FROM THE HIP

Dear Editor:

I think that Douglas Brinkley's statement about the Vietnam War is a misunderstanding. Although I believe in non-violence, I do not agree with the idea of taking on all American soldiers. I am not a pacifist. I am not against the war, but rather against the decision to continue it.

Lately,

I have been thinking about the war and the various policies that have been in place. I believe that the decision to continue the war was not the best choice for our country, and I do not support it.

Sincerely,

Edward Jones

SOLDIERS DOWN ON DUFFY

Dear Editor:

I was glad to see your paper reporting on the actions of our Student City (City Lights, May 16). It is a tribute to the dedication of the department, and Mr. Duffy himself, to end the war in Laos. I believe it is a worthwhile cause and I support it.

American Graffiti

The success of American Graffiti is due to the hard work of George Lucas, a young filmmaker who has already demonstrated an ability to make a film that is both entertaining and thought-provoking. The film tells the story of a group of young people who spend their summer nights cruising the highways and byways of the American West. The characters, played by a cast of unknowns, are brought to life by their performances, and the film is a tribute to the spirit of the American youth of the 1950s and 1960s.

Eat My Dust

Eat My Dust is a film about a group of young people who are bored with their lives and decide to take a road trip across the country. The film is a commentary on the values and attitudes of modern youth, and it is a tribute to the spirit of adventure and discovery that is so characteristic of youth culture.

4 Count 'em 4 Marx Movies Tonight!

The Marx Brothers are a group of four talented actors who have been working together for over 40 years. They are known for their zany performances and their ability to make the audience laugh. The film is a tribute to the Marx Brothers and to the art of comedy.

The Unicorn Cinema

The Unicorn Cinema is a small independent cinema that is known for showing a variety of films, from classic to contemporary. The cinema is a haven for film lovers, and it is a place where people can come together to enjoy the art of cinema.
DOWN IN THE DUMPS
Possibly the one wilderness area left, where the moviegoer can still rely on his instincts, escape the nattering advice from all sides, and exercise his own vigilance, is the murky area of exploitation movies.

Shepardcy
For a long time now, in the context of exploitation films, it has seemed as if no one is in charge of them. They seem to be left to their own devices, with no one taking responsibility for them. They are like the wilderness areas of the exploitation genre, where the moviegoer can still rely on his own instincts and escape the nattering advice from all sides.

One sailor who had a butterfly drilled into his lower back said, "It burns a little, but that's only temporary. It doesn't hurt any more than a tetanus shot."
Hysterical screams nearby call attention to an abduction. A maiden is being carried, kicking and screaming, into the woods to be ravished "within the realm of decency."
