WHO ARE THE ROSICRUCIANS?

Steve Gorden

ALL RIGHT, SKEPTICS, here's an exercise in faith... Try to imagine an old house on Fourth Avenue somewhere along the German-American border. This house was overcrowded and mysterious, home to a circle of people who held secret ceremonies and meetings behind closed doors. The community, while close-knit, was also a Front Line for spiritual enlightenment. Inside, the walls were thick, the windows small, and the atmosphere heavy. You see, the Rosicrucians are a secret society that has existed for centuries, and they are not afraid to hide behind the guise of other groups. But they have been known to emerge from their hiding places to spread their message of knowledge and understanding. They believe in the power of the mind and the importance of individuality. They are not afraid to challenge the status quo, and they are always looking for new members to join their ranks. They are the keepers of ancient wisdom, and they are not afraid to share it with the world. So, if you're interested in learning more about the Rosicrucians, please join us for a meeting...

Food Before the Melting Pot

Frenzied shopping, winter holiday covered with snow, and frenzied household chores, amalgamated — last-minute Christmas ideas for the person who has everything.

ELEANOR WISEMAN

In many parts of the country, the Christmas season is in full swing. The rush to purchase gifts and the excitement of holiday preparations are at their peak. With thebusiest shopping day of the year just around the corner, consumers are looking for ideas to make their holiday shopping easier and more enjoyable.

SAY WHAT?

If you're searching for a unique gift, consider the following ideas:

1. Music Lovers: Consider purchasing a high-quality vinyl record for a music enthusiast. Records are making a comeback in popularity, and there is a wide variety of genres available. For a more personalized gift, you could consider purchasing a custom vinyl record label with a personalized message.

2. Foodies: Gift certificates to local restaurants or cafes are a great option for food lovers. This allows the recipient to choose their own meal, and it supports local businesses. For a more unique gift, consider purchasing a gift card to a specialty food store, such as a gourmet cheese shop or a wine store.

3. Outdoor Enthusiasts: For those who love the outdoors, consider purchasing a high-quality hiking or camping backpack. This will allow the recipient to explore nature with ease and comfort.

4. Tech Savvy: For tech-savvy individuals, consider purchasing a new smartphone or tablet. These devices are constantly evolving, and a new model can be a great gift. For a more personalized gift, consider purchasing a custom smartphone case or a set of wireless headphones.

5. Art Lovers: Consider purchasing a high-quality art print or a ticket to a local museum. Art is a great way to express emotions and bring beauty into our lives.

These gift ideas are just a starting point. With a little creativity, you can find the perfect gift for anyone on your list.
