SUGAR AND SPICE AND EVERYTHING NICE

From the countless hours in innumerable women's clubs, from the many dollars measured out in dance studios and children's clothing departments, arise these contestants, ruffle- and lace-covered bundles of charm and talent and smiles.

For Another Place and Time

What is wrong with most of the arts today is not a lack of fine individual artists, but the lack of a general style or movement rich enough to sustain a passionate interest in what goes on next.

Three Potboilers and a Stewed Reviewer

Only a man of Stanley Kramer's undoubted sincerity could have been bamboozled into believing "The Domino Principle" had anything to add to the current cycle of paranoid movies.

NICE

She briefly nods approval at the tiny nymphet and sighs. "She looks just like a piece of sherbet, don't she?"

When we first got there, they got up on stage and they were all smiles. They said, "Now this pageant is for the kids and we want you all to have fun. Then the first thing they did was to start yelling at the kids.

and accompanying until the capture was said which was not heard. He had been shot in the head and one of the sleeves was gone. He heard a scream. "There's someone! There's someone!" He turned around and saw the girl who had been thrown to the ground. She was running at him with a knife in her hand. He grabbed her and tried to pull the knife out of her but she was too strong. He fell to the ground and the girl pulled the knife out and ran off. He lay there for a while, just thinking about what had happened. Then he heard footsteps and realized that someone had found him. They asked if he was hurt and he said yes. The police came and took him away.
