I'm Not As Drunk As Some Thinkie Pogy I Am

Since September 28 all drinkers planned with police in the county, including the County Sheriff's Department, Joe Detmers, Public Safety Director, and the local law enforcement agencies. The county, which is known as the county's "Drunk Mile" and "Drunk Alley," has been a popular spot for2.5 million alcoholics to congregate, according to the National Council on Alcoholism. The area is known for its lively atmosphere and numerous bars and restaurants.

The story also includes a letter from a local resident named John Smith, who writes:

"I've been drinking for years and I've never had a problem with the police. They're always friendly and helpful. I think the police should be thanked for all they do to keep our community safe."

A Man Selling Ice Cream

Selling ice cream is a dream that many people have while driving around the city. During World War II, the city was known for its ice cream trucks, which would drive around the streets and sell ice cream to the public. Nowadays, some people still sell ice cream from their trucks, and many people enjoy buying ice cream from them.

One of the most popular ice cream trucks in the city is owned by a local resident named Mary Smith. Mary has been selling ice cream from her truck for over 20 years, and she loves it. She says that it's a great way to make money and meet new people.

"I love selling ice cream. It's a great way to make money and meet new people. I've sold ice cream to people from all over the city, and I've even made some lifelong friends through the truck," says Mary.

When asked about the best thing about selling ice cream, Mary says, "The best thing about selling ice cream is seeing the smiles on people's faces when they get their ice cream. It's a simple joy that brings a lot of happiness to people."

With a Proper Stranger

In the world of work, it is not always easy to find a true friend. Sometimes people are just too busy with their own lives to take the time to get to know someone else. But there are times when a simple conversation can lead to a deep connection.

One day, I was sitting in a coffee shop, waiting for my friend to join me. I was feeling a bit lonely and out of place, but then I noticed a woman sitting across from me. She was reading a book and seemed to be lost in thought. I couldn't help but feel a sense of empathy for her.

As we struck up a conversation, I realized that we had a lot in common. We were both writers and had a passion for literature. We talked for hours, sharing stories and ideas. It was like we had known each other for years.

As the day wore on, we exchanged phone numbers and made plans to meet again. From that day on, we became close friends. We would meet up regularly and spend hours chatting, sharing stories, and laughing.

Looking back, I realize that it was just a small act of kindness that led to such a deep connection. But sometimes, it's the little things that make the biggest difference. So, if you're ever feeling lonely, remember that a simple conversation can lead to a lifetime of friendship.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY 2000! May you live to be a hundred and jump another birthday jump!

One of the many things I've learned about life is that you never know what's going to happen next.

Let's make this year special! Together, we can achieve anything we set our minds to.

We're all special individuals,
and together we can make a difference.

Everyone has a unique role to play,
and it's important to embrace our individuality.

Together, we can overcome challenges and reach our goals.

Let's celebrate the uniqueness of each other,
and make this year the best one yet.

We are all connected,
and our actions affect one another.

Let's work together to create a better world
for ourselves and future generations.

As we move forward,
let's remember to support each other and encourage one another to reach our full potential.

Happy Birthday 2000! May your life be filled with joy, love, and success as you take another leap forward.

THE READER PUZZLE

By Don Robb

"Dear me, sir, the airport security personnel require me to search my luggage. Would you mind very much opening your bag?"

"Well, what could I say? That London? That there was a time when my bag would compromise the security of the bag themselves? They'd go boom!"

"I said, "There is a puzzle inside, and opening my bag would compromise its integrity by giving the solution away. My bag just happens to be the puzzle itself."

Rules of the Game

1. For solving the Reader Puzzle, one of the winners will be chosen at random.
2. All entries in the Reader Puzzle must be submitted to the Reader Puzzle, P.O. Box 263, Northridge, CA 91325 by 4:00 p.m. Friday, thirty days from the date of publication. All entries must be accompanied by your name, address, and phone number (if you wish to be notified).
3. Employees of the Reader Puzzle and their families are not eligible.
4. In the event of disputes or ties, decisions of the judges shall be final and binding. There will be a grand prize of $500. There will also be a grand prize of $500.
5. All answers must be typed or printed legibly on the puzzle page. No phone calls or tapes or any other means of communication to our office.

Winners of Puzzles in the following five weeks:

1. Charles Johnson, San Diego
2. John Davis, San Diego
3. John Smith, San Diego
4. Mary Brown, San Diego
5. Mike Baker, San Diego
