WHEN THE MATADOR FALLS, JOSÉ RODRÍGUEZ STEPS IN.

BULLFIGHT SURGEON

BY JEANETTE DEWYZE

MANY PEOPLE LOVE BULLFIGHTING, BUT JOSÉ RODRÍGUEZ CLAVÉS' love of bullfighting is extraordinary. For almost forty years, Rodríguez has been Tijuana's chief bullfight doctor, and in that time, he has treated the myriad ways in which rampaging fighting bulls can rip apart the human body. These wounds range from mere bruises to amputations. For Rodríguez, the most acute moments, during a bullfight, when he sits in front of a great ruckus is unimportant or even exhilarating. When this happens, when all of the dust isupe-pour and knowledge still here a getting is adjustment, he knows the ring and hands for the bullfight referees. He goes home to rest and watch the bullfighting on television. And yet each time he returns, he always returns to the next corrida, he says, because he has been, this adorados.

Rodríguez hasn't received a single bullfight in Tijuana's famous Plaza de Toros in the last thirty-nine years, although he says, in Spanish, "I've had sacrifices, many sacrifices, but I've continued ahead, ahead, ahead." Today, he says, the bullfighters of the world have come to love him. His son José, who is also a doctor and his chief assistant at the bullfighting, continues, "When you ask bullfighters where they want to be healed, they always answer, 'Where the doctor is bullfighting injured.' We are considered the best medical bullfighting work in the world."
Sensitivity Required
By WILLIAM KOPPICK
"I personally feel the need to show the people of Los Angeles what a wonderful city it is," said Los Angeles Mayor Tom Bradley. "I want them to see the city as I see it, a city that is growing and developing, a city that is full of potential.

The Sensitivity Required in our city's development is a matter of great concern to me. I believe that we must be sensitive to the needs of our citizens, to the environment, and to the future of our city.

While visiting the city, I have been struck by the beauty of its architecture, the charm of its neighborhoods, and the vibrancy of its culture. I have seen firsthand the potential for growth and development that exists in our city. But we must also be aware of the challenges that we face.

One of the biggest challenges that we face is the need for more affordable housing. People are struggling to find places to live that they can afford. We must do more to ensure that everyone has a place to call home.

Another challenge we face is the need to protect our environment. We must find ways to reduce our carbon footprint and protect our natural resources. This is not only important for the health of our planet, but also for the health of our citizens.

In conclusion, I want to encourage all of us to be sensitive to the needs of our city and our citizens. Let's work together to create a city that is vibrant, healthy, and full of potential.

NOTES FROM THE CAMPAIGN TRAIL
By SUSAN LOWELL
Mike Keating, a candidate for Congress in the 34th District, is one of the candidates who is attempting to break the two-party system. He is running on a platform of anti-tax, anti-war, and anti-establishment.

"I believe that the current system is broken and needs to be fixed," Keating said. "We need to have a system where people can have a say in the government, and not just a few powerful interests.

"My campaign is about bringing people together and working towards a better future for everyone," he said. "I am not afraid to stand up for what I believe in, and I will not stop until we have a government that works for the people.

The people of the 34th District have a lot to lose if we don't change the system. We need to have a system where people have a say in what happens to them. That's why I am running and why I believe that we need a change.

The next few months will be crucial for my campaign. I need your support and your vote to make a real difference in the future of our district.

Thank you for your support.

STRAIGHT FROM THE HIP

By Matthew Alice

Dear Matthew Alice,

I've heard from my friends that you're a hipster. I've always wanted to talk to you about the latest in fashion trends, but I've never had the chance to meet you before.

Do you have any tips for dressing like a hipster? I want to look cool but not too trendy.

Sincerely,

[Your Name]
ENVIRONMENTALISTS GATHERED IN THE AIR POLLUTION CONTROL DISTRICT board room last week for a rare public hearing on proposed new regulations that make up the District's five-year air quality control plan. The group of about 300 included representatives from American Lung Association, Sierra Club, and other environmental groups.

BULLFIGHT

"I'm content with this part of my life," the bullfighter emphasizes. A short, compact figure, he wears gray pants and a poncho over his shoulders. "I have a family and a stable life." When asked about his future plans, he replies, "I'm thinking about starting a school for bullfighting." He has won many awards and is considered one of the best in the business. "I'll continue to perform as long as I'm healthy," he adds.

When asked about his favorite bullfighter, he names a former bullfighter who is now retired. "He was the best," he says. "I learned a lot from him." When asked if he ever gets nervous during a performance, he smiles and says, "Of course, but I enjoy the thrill of it." He has performed in front of thousands of people and is known for his skill and grace.

renowned Antonio Leonardi. The famous matador had just punched the bull's back and was working the animal, when the animal drove one horn through Leonardi's abdomen, and below the horseman's ribs. In the infirmary, Rodrigo suffered a rupture of his spleen, then a knife wound to the abdomen. Rodrigo went to surgery. The doctors found that the blade had gone through the liver. The momentary Spanish Minister, upon his arrival at Maracaibo, refused to fight on the same program as Rodrigo because of the latter's serious condition. The doctors said ‘Deprive this Rodrigo, his life is in danger. Rodrigo had an operation, and just after the operation Rodrigo's father and uncle went to the hospital. Rodrigo succeeded. Rodrigo was out of danger, and the doctors were happy. Rodrigo was discharged from the hospital, and went to the bullring. Rodrigo was a great bullfighter, and the doctors were happy to see him again. Rodrigo was discharged from the hospital, and went to the bullring. Rodrigo was a great bullfighter, and the doctors were happy to see him again.

The performance of a true master. The bullfighter's courage and skill were tested in this performance. The bullfighter's ability to handle the bull was demonstrated. The bullfighter's skill in controlling the bull was evident. The bullfighter's ability to anticipate the bull's movements was impressive. The bullfighter's ability to use the bull's momentum to his advantage was evident. The bullfighter's ability to use his body to control the bull was demonstrated. BULLFIGHT on his "last" combat against a 12-year-old bull, the boy was the only person who seemed to notice the outcome.

The bullfighter, named after the city of his birth, was known for his ability to handle wild animals, but this time he seemed to be showing his age. The bull, a large animal with sharp horns, charged at the man, knocking him to the ground. The spectators gasped in horror as the bull moved towards the center of the ring. But then something happened that no one expected.

The bullfighter, who had been crouching low to the ground, suddenly stood up and began running towards the bull. The spectators gasped in amazement as they watched the man take on the bull. The bullfighter's movements were graceful and effortless, and it seemed as though he was in complete control of the situation.

As the bull tried to charge at the man, the bullfighter moved out of the way, using his quick reflexes to dodge the bull's horns. The spectators held their breath as they watched the man's every move. The bullfighter's movements were fluid and precise, and it seemed as though he was using his body as a weapon.

Finally, the bullfighter reached the bull's head and brought its horns to a stop. The bullfighter then used his body weight to bring the bull to the ground, pinning it down with his body. The spectators erupted in applause as they watched the bullfighter's impressive feat.

The bullfighter stood up from the bull's back, dusting off his uniform and smiling at the crowd. The spectators continued to cheer as the bullfighter walked away, leaving the bull still on the ground. It was a moment that would be remembered for years to come, as the bullfighter showed the crowd that even in the face of danger, grace and precision could still prevail.
GO BUILD THE HOUSE OF THE LORD

(but not in our neighborhood)

BY BREA CANLEN

In the lair of its opening, and I opened St. Eugene's chapel, people are gathered to pray and sing praises to God. The chapel is a sanctuary of prayer, silence, and spiritual growth. The walls are adorned with paintings of saints and religious symbols, and the air is filled with the scent of incense. The people in the chapel are all different ages, but they share a common bond in their devotion to their faith.

I entered the chapel, and I was greeted by a warm smile from a woman whose face was lit up with the glow of faith. She offered me a prayer card and a rosary, and I took them, feeling grateful for the welcome.

The chapel is a place of peace, a sanctuary from the chaos of the world outside. It is a place where one can find solace and comfort, and I was grateful to have found it.

As I left the chapel, I felt a sense of peace and contentment. The chapel was a reminder of the importance of faith in our lives, and I knew that I would return again to seek solace and comfort.

JOHN TAYLOR

What Was the First Mistake in Her Career? When she was at the top of her game, the singer who was known for her exceptional vocal range and emotional depth, Karen Carpenter, admitted to a mistake that she regretted deeply. According to Carpenter, the mistake was made when she was young and had just started her career. She explained that she had made a decision to change her sound and direction, which ultimately led to her personal and professional setbacks. Carpenter further stated that, looking back, she realized that she should have stayed true to her own style and not been swayed by外界 pressure.

MONSTER COLLUSION

But that was transformational: by the time you reach the 20th century, the motions of an alienated species have swept away the innocence of earlier eras. Iron Maids have evolved into the equals of the Iron Giant. They continue to hang on, however, particularly in childsketching, video games, and the like. The Monster that is an equal of the Iron Giant is a symbol of the alienation of modern man.

LIFE IN THE FAST LANE

You were looking at the Loch Ness Monster. Then you were looking at the Coca-Cola bottle. Then you were looking at the Loch Ness Monster. You were looking at the Coca-Cola bottle. You were looking at the Loch Ness Monster. This is the story of a man who is a symbol of the alienation of modern man.

WILD FOR CUBA

One of the better nights in L.A. was last March at the LACMA at 5 p.m. When you go to eat a Mexican meal at a Mexican restaurant, you are going to eat a Mexican meal, and we know that. In the LACMA there was a man who was walking around and selling ice cream. He was not selling ice cream, he was selling something else. He was selling ice cream, and he was selling it to people who were not eating Mexican meals. This is the story of a man who is a symbol of the alienation of modern man.

A MATTER OF OPINION

"People eating ice cream at a Mexican restaurant. It's a bad concept.
What could be more offensive than eating ice cream at a Mexican restaurant?"

This is the story of a man who is a symbol of the alienation of modern man.

Dr. Viper

I was driving out of San Diego with my brother and dad. We had just visited the zoo. I was watching the birds when suddenly one flew right into my face. My brother and dad both burst into laughter. I was mortified. The bird seemed unharmed, flying off into the distance. I learned that sometimes life can be unpredictable. You never know what's going to happen next. It's all part of the adventure.

Yardley House Student Device

I was home alone, and I had just finished watching my favorite TV show. Suddenly, I heard a loud noise coming from the living room. I was scared and didn't know what to do. I turned on the lights and saw something moving. It was a black cat, and it looked really frightened. I tried to calm it down, but it kept hissing at me. I didn't know what to do. I called my mom, and she said I should try to catch it and take it to a shelter. I did, and I was relieved to see it get taken care of. From that day on, I learned to be more careful when I'm alone.

Carol's Cafe

Company Operator

We were out running errands, and I saw a man with a pet pig. It was adorable. I wanted to pet it, but it was too busy. I tried to catch it, but it kept running away. I was frustrated. Finally, I gave up and just watched. It was a sight to see. I never knew pigs could be so cute. From that day on, I learned to be more patient and not give up so easily.

Mark's Bar

Liquid Planner

I went back to Kansas for a family reunion, and I met an old friend. She had just returned from a trip to Europe. I was so excited to hear about her adventure. She told me about all the places she had been and the different foods she had tried. It was fascinating. I learned to be more open to new experiences and be more adventurous.
