One of the key principles upon which fraternities are osterably founded is the promulgation of brotherhood. Greek usage of the term is, however, novel, insofar as it is exclusive, rather than inclusive. A fraternity brother speaking of brotherhood is not reterring to the brotherhood of man. In any investigation, it is always helpful to square one's collected data with the observations of a knowledgeable informant — an individual sensitive to the area of concern. Every effort must be made to skirt rookies, must be both typical and atypical.

In the course of this "Greek-system" study, such an individual was discovered and interviewed. His observations provide useful insights into the fraternity system — how Greeks view themselves and their persons in the search for such persons in the search for such an informant. Their input will only serve to confuse matters. The ideal informant must be able to serve as both his group's advocate and critic, He must be both typical and

Q: Why do Greeks seem to vomit more often than other students?

A: They do not. Go to the dormitories on any Friday night, and they're [the students living there] puking all over the place. Greeks are out in the open, so they seem more obvious.

Q: What about these incidents involving young women ... or even the fraternity that had the two-way mirror installed in the women's rest installed in the women's rest room?

A: Fraternities only reflect the mores of the society at large. Date rape is a hot topic now. But it's not only a problem of soroities and fraternities. It happens elsewhere. It happens in the dorms. It happens in the apartments where students live. It's nothing particular to Growks.

Greeks.

Q: Given that fraternity life is not morally superior to "independent life," what does it have to offer a student?

A: Leadership opportunities. Responsibilities. Chances to meet people who share your interests. Organized sports. Some sort of structure during college — it can be a very confusing time for kids. And it looks good on a résumé.

Q: What sorority has the least attractive girls?

A: Probably Alpha Xi Delta. A: Probably Alpha Xi Delta. A girl would have to have a real inferiority complex to join that house. None of the fraternities wants to have arrything to wire always busy. Q: And the prettiest? A: That's difficult. Pi Beta Phi diffica recult but may be

Friday night ritual, 2:00 a.m., Montezunia Road. Two fraternity brothers are observed escorting a sorority sister to her house. Both brothers are tall and blond and carry large cans of beer. At one point, they stop to hur! the trash cans from a nearby sorority house into the street, directly in the path of oncoming traffic. A young girl's voice from an undetermined location is heard telling the young men to be quiet. One or young men to be quiet. One of the young men spins about and advises the strident voice to "suck my asa." The sister leading the two brothers pauses unsteadily on her high heels. She, too, is holding a beer can. She shakily plants her heels on the curb's edge. "What the hell are you two waiting for?" she asks loudly. "Christmas?"

Where to go on Night Maneuvers.

We've got three sizzling suggestions: Acapulco Restaurant's Cantinas in San Marcos, Rancho Bernardo and Mira Mesa. In San Marcos, we're talking the ultimate dance club. Good people. Free hors d'œuvres at Happy Hour. And a huge dance floor that's so hot you'd better wear asbestos shoes. And in Rancho Bernardo and Mira Mesa, you'll find the same great tunes, DI's and people. The same kind of nightly events and Happy Hours. In a little more intimate setting. Either way, you'll also find something no other dance club can offer. An Acapulco

Quite possibly the smoothest maneuver you could make.
