in sight of HEAVEN

VISIONS OF THE HEREAFTER

A

A crew and Ethel Lee swat their turn in the shuffleboard courtyards. In the winter of life, they sit, legs crossed at ankles, on folding chairs at a card table. The skin on the tops of their hands is shiny, and speckled as trout. Their gazes fit to the shuffleboard court and then to each other. Between games, they keep an eye on their purses.

"I think people our age, older people, they mostly believe," says Aurora. "They hope to go to heaven. We talk about it."

"In rest homes," agrees Ethel Lee, "they talk about it a lot, yes."

"If they repeated in the end, they could get to heaven, though."

After only 5 roundtrips on business, the 6th is on us.

Swissett Airlines is giving double credit on all trips now through December 31, 1988. So you can earn free trips through The Company Club's frequent flyer program, twice as fast. Only five roundtrips, no matter how short, can earn you a free roundtrip anywhere we fly.

And that includes Las Vegas, New Orleans, San Antonio...anywhere Southwest Airlines flies. If you're already a Company Club member, earn a free roundtrip after only four roundtrips. Maybe we should call the Company Club our In frequent Flyer Program.

Maniacal Laughter

BY JOHN D'AGORDINO

To say that the show is a laugh riot is an understatement. We've witnessed a twining of the chameleon, in which various characters emerge from the same basic thing. This is not just a joke to the audience. It's a joke to the audience as well. The show is so well done that it's impossible to guess what the next character will be. The show is a hit with the audience, and it's a hit with the audience as well.

Lethe's such a talented ensemble! Each member brings their own unique flair to the show, and it's a pleasure to watch them work together. The show is a hit with the audience as well.

Grecian Profile

Kephala, or ion meat bath, is an ancient Greek dish. It was considered a delicacy and was often served during festivals and events. The dish was prepared by marinating the meat in a mixture of wine, garlic, and honey. The meat was then grilled over an open flame and served with a sauce made from the reduction of the marinade.

SUNDAY AT THE FESTIVAL

The Le Julea Clubhouse Music Festival is an annual event that celebrates Greek American culture. The festival features a variety of musical performances, traditional dances, and food. The festival is organized by the Greek American Cultural Association and is sponsored by the city of Los Angeles. The festival takes place in the heart of Hollywood and attracts thousands of visitors each year.

The festival features performances by numerous Greek American musicians, including local bands such as the Athenian Brothers, the Greek American Orchestra, and the Hellenic Choir. The festival also includes a variety of food vendors, offering traditional Greek dishes such as spanakopita, moussaka, and baklava.

The festival is held on the second weekend of September, and the exact dates and times vary from year to year. It is a popular event for both locals and tourists, and is a wonderful opportunity to experience Greek American culture in Los Angeles.

T-BIRD FASCINATION

In 1953 the Farl-Morino Company bought the rights to the T-Bird from Henry Ford II, a record. By 1957, the T-Bird was the most popular car in America. The first T-Bird was a prototype, and it wasn't until 1958 that the production model was introduced. The T-Bird was a symbol of the American Dream, representing speed, power, and prestige. It was the car of choice for many celebrities and Hollywood stars. The T-Bird's sleek design and powerful engine made it a favorite among drivers the world over. Today, the T-Bird is a symbol of a bygone era, a reminder of the days when cars were more than just transportation. They were a part of the American culture and identity.}
