To appreciate the youthquakers fully, the frenetic art making, their asvish artitude roward drugs, their monstop sexual show-and-tell, one would have to have been a child of the Eisenhower era and of its incipient insanity — Commit were everywhere, A-bombs were ready to blow the free world to kingdom come, were ready to blow the free world to kingdoin come, people believed with ardent sith that Red Chinese were amasing below the Mexican border (tens of thousands, perhaps hundreds of thousands), peril watting ... and suddenly Dalias, the grassy knoll, a blood spattered limosuine. By the time "Ich bin ein Berliner" and the painting of a hundred Coke bettles rolled around, America had been sweating in its moral straitjacket for nearly a decade.

More than a simple witness to the Sixties, Wein was part of a group that gave the decade its cachet. On decade its auchet. On Tuesday, September 13, at 7,30 p.m., he will be speaking ar D.G.
