The occasional pile is a collection of small pieces of paper that are left to gather dust and collect dust. But sometimes, they can be quite informative. The occasional pile can be a source of inspiration, or even a source of new ideas. So, if you find yourself struggling with a problem, or simply feeling overwhelmed, try reading through your occasional pile. You might be surprised at what you find.

STRAIGHT FROM THE HIP

By Matthew Alice

Dear Matthew Alice,

I've received a clipping from the Sunday paper with a poem from Steve Martin. It's from the 1982 story "The Hip." Do you remember it? I'd love to see the story again. The name of the story is "The Hip." I'm not sure if you've read the story before, but it's a great piece of work. The name of the story is "The Hip." I'm not sure if you've read the story before, but it's a great piece of work.

Marine Corps Staff Sergeant Ausby Alexander comes on strong

BY JOHN MCCLOUGH Photography by Paul Stachocek

[self-sized image]

Sacramento is a tough town to conquer for any athlete - the city is known for its gritty, hard-nosed style of play. And for a Marine Corps Staff Sergeant in the basketball world, it's no different. Ausby Alexander, a distinguished member of the Marine Corps and a former professional basketball player, is no stranger to the challenges of the court.

Alexander's journey started in the Marine Corps, where he served as a staff sergeant. He quickly rose to fame on the basketball court, becoming one of the top players in the country. His skills on the court and his dedication to his country earned him a spot on the United States Olympic team.

But Alexander's story didn't end there. After his time in the military, he entered the professional basketball world, where he continued to hone his skills and take on new challenges. He quickly became a force to be reckoned with, winning multiple awards and gaining the respect of fellow players and fans alike.

In his latest endeavor, Alexander has taken on the role of coaching the Sacramento Kings, a professional basketball team. He brings his wealth of experience and knowledge to the team, helping them to improve their skills and taking them to new heights.

But Alexander's influence goes beyond the court. He is a mentor to many young people, inspiring them to pursue their dreams and work hard to achieve their goals. His dedication to his country and his community is a testament to his character and his commitment to making a positive impact in the world.

In conclusion, Ausby Alexander is a true American hero, both on and off the court. His story is one of perseverance, hard work, and dedication to making a difference in the world. And with his latest coaching role, he continues to inspire and motivate others to reach for greatness.
life of selling lies

What I'm going to do is make a couple of sheets of this LSD.

First I need a working surface. I use my novel, (and you thought I really read them).

The next is high, so take care of one step for me. You see, every day I battle with myself, but I'm not losing. I go to the store during lunch hour when it's quiet. My decision is made. All the activity in the store will not deter me from my goal. I have been told to use my common sense, to think everything through before I make a decision. But I have never done anything like this before. I am not sure how to proceed.

In my hand today is Big Frank. I began to get going. First things first:

- Is it any good?
- asks the sales in the leather jacket.
- The kind?
- "Galaxy." Sometimes the hardest part about selling bank LSD is thinking of some catchy name to call your product.

I need a drink. I put on my Levi's, a long-sleeved shirt, and some black shoes. You can wear a shirt for a week, maybe for a month, but I have to have clean socks. That's mine, a real fashion statement. I grab a couple of decent cutes at the on-high and head up First Avenue to the University.

I don't want him to taste it because crystal has a very bitter taste that my product does not. I whip out a little pocket knife which I have especially for this purpose and scoop a little of the fake crystal into the end of the bottle, hold some up to his nose. He sniffs it up.

ARTIST AND MODELS

BY JONATHAN SAVILLE

The Los Angeles County Museum of the Fine Arts has opened a special exhibition of works by the French impressionist painter Paul Cézanne entitled "Cézanne: The Innovator." The exhibition, which runs till March 25, features more than 100
paintings and drawings by Cézanne, including early works, landscapes, and still lifes. The exhibition is co-organized by the Los Angeles County Museum of the Fine Arts and the Musée d'Orsay in Paris. The works on display offer a distinctive glimpse into Cézanne's development as an artist and his influence on later generations of painters.

A Gentle Rain was extraordinarily good at target-shooting with his parents' infectious energy. But the moment personal and romantic intentions of Black's great correspondent in Antiquities, Henry James, are revealed, the combination of the two becomes ultimately more important than either alone. In "Black's Gentle Rain," a painting by Cézanne, we see the interconnectedness of art and life, as expressed through the beauty and sensuality of the nude. Cézanne's innovative use of color and form creates an atmosphere of intimacy and tenderness, inviting the viewer to experience the emotional depth of the artist's subject matter.

Sounds Naughty

One sensed a lewdness among those whose ingestion of beer had brought their alcohol levels in line with their testosterone counts.

discounts that come wrapped in beer paper - one of my favorite memories. The job itself was a throwback to a simpler time, when the bar was the center of social activity. The people I worked with were a mix of regulars and regulars, and we had a great time sharing stories and laughing together.

But back to its original - and one might argue, more authentic - state of being. I had a feeling that the place was more than just a bar. It was a community hub, where people came together to unwind and enjoy each other's company.

I remember one night, a group of us were sitting around the bar, chatting and enjoying a few drinks. Suddenly, one of the regulars started telling us about a local legend who was rumored to have some sort of magical power. It was hard to tell if it was just a story or if there was some truth to it, but it certainly added to the charm of the place.

As the night wore on, we started to feel the effects of the alcohol. The atmosphere became more relaxed, and we found ourselves sharing stories and laughter. It was a perfect end to the day, and I knew that I would always remember that night at the bar.

In the end, I realized that the place was more than just a job. It was a part of my life, and I was grateful to have been a part of it.

SPLENDOR
OF THE SOUND

In the beginning, there was the Sound and the Sound was good. It was the sound that filled the void and gave life to the world. It was the sound that united all, the sound that made us one. However, as the world evolved, so did the sound. And with the rise of technology, the sound became a tool for manipulation. It was no longer a force for unity, but a means to divide. The sound became a weapon, used to influence and manipulate. It was a searing, piercing sound that could make the heart race and the mind spin. It was a sound that could make you laugh and make you cry. It was a sound that could make you think and make you feel. But in the end, it was just sound. A constant, unrelenting sound that echoed through the ages. And so, in the beginning, there was the Sound and the Sound was good.

MOISTURIZER

Moisturizer is a vital component of any skincare routine. It helps to retain moisture in the skin, which is essential for healthy, supple skin. There are different types of moisturizers available, each designed to address specific skin concerns. Here are some popular moisturizer options:

1. Creams: These are thick, rich moisturizers that penetrate deeply into the skin, providing intense hydration and protection. They are ideal for dry to extremely dry skin.

2. Lotions: Lotions are lighter than creams and are easily absorbed into the skin. They are suitable for all skin types, especially oily and combination skin.

3. Gels: Gel-based moisturizers are lightweight and清爽, making them perfect for oily skin. They provide hydration without leaving the skin feeling greasy.

4. Serums: These are highly concentrated, lightweight formulations that are loaded with active ingredients. They are ideal for targeting specific skin concerns like fine lines, wrinkles, or pigmentation.

5. Oils: Carrier oils like jojoba, argan, or rosehip are popular choices for moisturizers. They are lightweight and easily absorbed, providing hydration and nourishment to the skin.

Selecting the right moisturizer depends on your skin type and specific skin concerns. It's always a good idea to patch test new products to ensure they don't cause any adverse reactions.

LUXURY FOR YOUR SKIN

Luxury skincare products are designed to provide a superior experience and results. They often contain high-quality, potent ingredients and are formulated with advanced technology. Here are some luxury skincare products worth considering:

1. Serums: These are concentrated formulas packed with powerful ingredients like peptides, vitamins, and antioxidants. They are ideal for targeting specific skin concerns and can provide noticeable results.

2. Facial Oils: Oils rich in essential fatty acids can help to nourish and moisturize the skin. They are great for replenishing the skin's natural barrier and improving the skin's overall appearance.

3. Peel Pads: These are single-use pads that contain exfoliants and acids to help remove dead skin cells and improve skin texture. They are often used for weekly treatments to help rejuvenate the skin.

4. Gel Exfoliators: These are lightweight exfoliators that gently remove dead skin cells, leaving the skin feeling smooth and refreshed. They are ideal for those with normal to oily skin.

Luxury skincare products are often more expensive but offer a higher level of effectiveness and quality compared to their more affordable counterparts.

Skin care products are a significant investment, and it's important to choose the products that best suit your skin type and concerns. Always patch test new products and consider consulting with a dermatologist for personalized advice.

ASTIGMATISM CORRECTING SOFT LENSES

Stop suffering from blurred vision caused by astigmatism, and wear comfortable, soft contact lenses as an alternative to glasses.

Contact lenses are practical for people with active lifestyles, requiring frequent cleaning. They offer the same vision as glasses, but without the hassle of frames or the need to replace lenses frequently.

TRIAL LENSES AVAILABLE

Inquire about our special introductory offer on astigmatism contact lenses! Make an appointment today to see how comfortably you can wear contact lenses.
