A Geography of San Diego Murders

MOB JOBS

1. Tower Bar, 3030 Pacific Hw 80
The victim, a man named Music, was shot dead by robbers in this bar, located at the corner of Pacific Highway and Ocean Street. The incident was caught on video surveillance, and the killer was later identified as a member of the local mob.

2. The victim was a Mafia enforcer named Monte. According to witnesses, he was shot outside a bar called "The Ritz" on Ocean Street. The killer, who was riding a motorcycle, shot Monte in the head and fled the scene.

3. The victim, named Mark, was shot in the head while walking on 3rd Avenue near Pacific Highway. He was carrying a purse and had just left a nearby store. The killer was never found.

MURDER AND MONEY

Story by Matt Potter
INSIDE THE PARK

It's a dog eat dog world.

The boys are the men and the men are the dogs.

The girls are the women and the woman are the dogs.

The dogs are like men.

CITY LIGHTS
BALLOON MAN

The Reader offers a special service for those who are interested in obtaining the attention of the public. The service is known as the "City Lights," and it involves renting a helium-filled balloon with your name or message printed on it. The balloon will float high above the earth for several hours, drawing the attention of passersby and creating a sense of excitement.

The City Lights service is particularly useful for advertising businesses or events.
For example, a restaurant might rent a balloon to promote a new menu, or a nonprofit organization might use it to raise awareness for a cause.

To use the City Lights service, you will need to provide the following information:
- Your name or message
- The location where you want the balloon to be released
- The duration of the rental

The City Lights service is available for a small fee, and the balloon will be released on a schedule that minimizes interference with other activities.

The City Lights service is a unique and effective way to draw attention to your business or event.

THE PORTFOLIO FIGHT

The Reader offers a special service called the "Portfolio Fight," which is designed to help individuals achieve their personal and professional goals.

The Portfolio Fight service is a comprehensive program that includes:
- A one-on-one consultation with a qualified coach
- A personalized portfolio
- A series of workshops and seminars

The Portfolio Fight service is available for a small fee, and it will be provided at a local community center.

The Portfolio Fight service is a valuable tool for anyone looking to achieve their goals and reach their full potential.

Don Antonio is more than a taco man

I had glanced at Don Antonio’s taco shop a few times and always thought it was a little peculiar. It was located right in the heart of the city, on a busy street corner. The building itself was unassuming, but the sign that hung above it stood out—bright green letters on a black background. The name, Don Antonio’s Taco Shop, was written clearly in white. The entrance was a small door that opened onto a narrow walkway. Inside, it was always crowded, with people waiting in line to order their food. The smell of fresh tortillas and sizzling meats filled the air. The sound of sizzling and frying echoed throughout the shop, creating an inviting atmosphere for visitors. I decided to go inside and try their food for myself. The moment I stepped inside, I was greeted by the friendly staff. They were all short and stocky, with faces that wore permanent smiles. They were quick to serve me, and the food arrived in no time. I was struck by the variety of options available. From the classic tacos to the more exotic dishes, there was something for everyone. I chose the Nopal Taco, which was filled with nopales, a type of cactus, and ground beef. It was delicious, and I couldn’t help but go back for another. Don Antonio’s Taco Shop was more than just a place to eat. It was a community hub, where people came together to enjoy some good food and each other’s company. I was grateful to have discovered this hidden gem in the heart of the city.
MURDER IN UNIFORM

According to the preliminary report, Officer SA Johnson, 26-year-old San Diego Police, died of gunshot wounds sustained while on duty on August 1, 2001. The circumstances surrounding the officer's death are under investigation. The San Diego Police Department, in accordance with its procedures, is liaising with the County Medical Examiner's Office to determine the cause of death.

SILK PLANT SALE

Come see San Diego's largest and finest selection of silk plants, trees and flowers at prices you won't believe. With a busy career and four children, I couldn't put my life's work just to go out for a ride. Here's why I went to Dier Center:

Losing weight fast. I'm not just losing weight, I'm losing inches, pounds, and inches melt away for good.

Less food, more exercise. Minimalist shows only 5% of the weight lost at the Dier Center program is exercise, but not want to be truly fat.

Fast results. Expensive packaged meals required. Not for the weak. Additional weight loss available.

Call now for your FREE consultation at Dier Center. (444) 6871 6555 1000 N. 10th Ave., San Diego, CA 92101. Dier Center, Inc. is a Commissioned Sales Representative for Dier Center.

PLANKS FOR THE MEMORY

Young author says a pile of rocks and water is all a child needs to create an evocative scene. "On a hot day, my father and I would go to the beach together. There would be a cool breeze coming off the ocean, and the sound of the waves would lull us into a peaceful state of mind." The author shares memories of his childhood summers spent by the sea, highlighting the simplicity and beauty of nature.

OUTSIDE CHANCES

You might not have noticed, but there are chances to experience something unique. Try listening to different sounds, such as rain, wind, or birds singing. You can also observe the patterns in nature, like the way leaves fall or the way clouds move across the sky. These small moments can bring a sense of wonder and appreciation for the world around us.

CELEBRATING SERENITY

In Japan, children engage in the practice of wellness through mindful activities. "Playing with water in the park is a great way to celebrate serenity," says the author. "The refreshing feel of the water and the sound of the waves create a peaceful atmosphere." This simple activity allows children to connect with nature and experience a sense of calm.

JAPANESE NOVELS

Japan is known for its rich literary tradition, including novels that explore themes of serenity and simplicity. "Buddha in the Snow" by Mieko Kawakami is a contemporary novel that delves into the beauty of nature and the human spirit. The author discusses how the novel captures the essence of serenity through its descriptive language and thoughtful storytelling.

OF NOTE

The 50th Anniversary of Book and Clay: "Tahleen: The Story of a Woman Who Changed the World," by Sybil Taff, is celebrated at the Clay People's Holiday Bookstore on Saturday, July 9, from 2 to 5 p.m. The event includes a reading of a new edition of Taff's book, a discussion of the book's impact on the world, and a Q&A session with the author. All proceeds from the book sale will benefit the Clay People's Holiday Bookstore. For more information, visit claypeople.com.

Stephen Edmondson

"Dance All Night: The Life and Times of a Dancer," by Susan Glaspell, is a new play opening at the Balboa Theatre on July 8. The show, directed by Michael Kehoe, features a cast of 20 dancers and explores the life of a dancer who has been dancing for over 50 years. For more information, visit balboatheatre.com.

"If You're Injured, You Need Special Attention," by David Sedaris, is a new book that explores the author's experiences with healthcare and the medical system. The book, which is available now, provides a humorous yet profound look at the state of healthcare in America. For more information, visit david sedaris.com.

If your household income is at least $25,000 a year ... you could own this BMW 325i today!

It can now cost more to drive an imitation BMW than a BMW.

For years, auto makers have been unleashing hordes of sporty-looking cars that claim to perform "like a BMW." What's a bit puzzling about the current crop is that many of these imitations now cost as much if not more than the original. Fortunately, there's an easy way to distinguish between the two. It's called driving.

Come into BMW of San Diego and test drive the 325i today. See how affordable owning a BMW can be.
