We Went to Hoover

How 1989 finds the class of '34

Story by Mary Lang  Photographs by Dave Allen

Marking the end of a basement corridor in the Clarion Hotel (formerly the Lafayette), a doorway frames a rectangle of strong light. Figures move against the light. Shush talk and laughter reverberate. Jean pauses in the hall to dab powder above her upper lip. She feels relaxed and expectant. Not at all nervous as she was at the 30-year reunion. She tucks her compact away in her purse.

STRAIGHT FROM THE HIP by Matthew Alice

Dear Matthew, Alice,

I'm not sure what to say to you? They just sent me the following piece and it seems that they are trying to sell you something, but it's not clear what it is.

The text is not clear, and it's not clear what the context is. It seems to be a mix of a letter and an advertisement, but it's not clear what the advertisement is for.

Do you have any idea what this is about?

Best regards,

Matthew, Alice
Owing, I'm sure, to what W. S. Gilbert terms "the agency of an ill-natured fairy," all the critics turned out to be deaf.

I opened this scene reluctantly, under the threat of enormous suffering at the hands of an audience who were talking. My fear was justified. They didn't have a chance to talk, or me. I was being worked over with unbridled savagery. And, as I've been told, there's nothing like severe criticism to produce a change of attitude.

I would have sworn in death I had never done such a thing. I asked that no criticism be printed and I wrote a letter to the editor, but no one would believe it. I would have done anything but what I did.

I have never been so out of sorts. I never was like this before. I don't know what's come over me.

I can't believe it. I can't believe it.

HELLO MY NAME IS

My name was Jeann.
Under Siege

BY DUNCAN SHEPHERD

It's My sack to wage and ze meaning is understanding this. It doesn't matter how long or how hard you've been trying. It doesn't matter what you've done. It's all about perspective. And for that, I'm grateful.

The more I think about it, the more I realize that the key to success is perspective. It's not always about the end result, but about the journey itself. And that's what I'm grateful for. The struggle, the setbacks, the failures. They're all part of the process. They're all part of what makes us who we are.

But it's also about the people. The ones who believe in you, who support you, who are there for you. They're the ones who make all the difference. They're the ones who keep you going, even when it's hard. They're the ones who inspire you, who motivate you, who challenge you.

And that's what I'm grateful for. The people, the journey, the perspective. It's all about perspective.

An Emergency Appeal

Donations are urgently needed to assist victims of the devastating earthquake in the San Francisco Bay Area. More than 10,000 people are without homes, and the staggering costs of providing food, blankets, clothing and shelter to the newly-homeless has far outstripped the resources of local agencies. Your help is desperately needed.

An emergency fund has been established to provide immediate and direct assistance to the relief effort in the hardest-hit communities in Santa Clara, Santa Cruz and San Benito counties. Please assist this effort by sending donations of any size to the California Earthquake Fund, c/o First Interstate Bank, Dept. #5702, San Francisco, CA 94139.
