The scene was set in front of the San Diego Terminal Station, where Hiram “Bo” Brown was a regular. He was a man of few words, but his presence was felt by all. He was a fixture at the station, always dressed in a crisp suit, his hat always in place, and his pipe never far from his mouth. He was a symbol of the city, a man who had seen it all and was content to watch and observe.

If You're Looking For New And Interesting People In San Diego, We're Free.

Introducing Reader Phone Matches. A Great New Way To Meet Single People. Free.

It works by providing you with a free, personal matching service in the Reader Classifieds. You will also receive a free "voice mailbox"—a phone service that allows you to record and receive messages from any touch-tone phone.

Phone Matches are:

Simple: The Phone Matches System guides you, step by step. You can re-record your introduction any number of times—until you are satisfied with it.

Quick: It's not necessary to open a P.O. box and wait for letters. You can listen to your phone-in responses any time, day or night. Confidential. Only you can listen to your responses. Respondents wait to hear back from you. There's no need to reveal your phone number or address.

So if you're free, why not put yourself on the line today? Turn to Section 1 for details.
ATTENTION JURORS & FUTURe JURORS
You Can Legally Acquit Anti-Abortion "Trespassers" Even If They're "Guilty"

Judges Hide This Power From You
Suppose you're on the jury in the case of some anti-abortion "trespassers" who knocked down a woman's arm in front of an abortion facility.

But the judge probably will tell you there is no precedent for acquittal because you agree with their actions. He'll say you can vote only on the facts of the case, not your moral views. He'll say you can't vote "not guilty" for "not guilty" of trespassing.

I'm Not Telling the Truth
Most judges and prosecutors don't want you to know the common law you can use to acquit "guilty" people if you believe that the law has not been properly applied. I'm not telling you how to vote in a particular case. I'm simply stating that you have the power to acquit someone who is called "guilty" by the law. If you believe that the law has not been properly applied, you have that power.

For centuries, common law has given you this power. Remember the Pennsylvania case (1775) from your American history classes when the jury knew the defendant was guilty but acquitted him because they believed the law was unjust?

During the 1800s, Britain's courts honored the same principle when they acquitted a defendant who was guilty of breaking the law. The jury simply held that the law was unjust.

Philadelphia Jury Acquits
In 1969, a Philadelphia jury acquitted a man who was charged with murder on the ground that the law was unjust. The fact that the law was unjust is a legal fact.

You and the jury have the power to acquit on this ground.

From the San Diego Union & San Diego Tribune

But this is still years to use today.

On February 4, 1987, a jury in Philadelphia voted unanimously to acquit five people who had been charged with trespassing outside an abortion clinic. The verdict was called a "swift and decisive" victory for the anti-abortion movement.

A man named David G. Reeder, who was charged with arson, was acquitted on the ground that the law was unjust. The jury believed that the law was unjust because it was designed to suppress free speech.

As a result, the judge and prosecutor knew that you knew about this right.

It is unjust and illegal for them to defy the law.

The third rule is, educate other jurors about this right and the reason.

And we are still voting to acquit them of "guilty."

Role

Trolley proponents insist they will build better than what exists now, and modify the system to include different types of service. A radical proposal would build a new system all the way from north to Oceanside City and back. G. Bert Johnson, director of Metrolink, a large-scale San Diego transportation company, has proposed a new system that would transform trolley service. He suggests extending a new line from north to east to serve the southern part of the city.

More recently, San Diego officials have talked about a more limited system to improve trolley service within the city itself.

"Mill: You can only take on so much. What I decided to do was diminish the use of the automobile in California by increasing the use of public transportation."

combined with the highway tax money to construct this new system and it's paid for mainly by San Diego General Electric." This project would cost $1.3 billion and would be the first of its kind in the United States. The San Diego Chamber of Commerce has agreed to pay $200 million of the cost, and the state of California will be involved.

"Transportation is one of the biggest problems we face. We need to be able to move people from place to place in a more efficient way. The state of California has been working on this issue for a long time, but we haven't really done much with it until now."

The project is being funded by a combination of state and federal money, as well as private investors. The total cost is estimated to be $1.3 billion.

"I can get people on board, but Pete Wilson is the Reggie Jackson—he hits the home run."

"I can't understand why people don't see the value in this. Trolley service is essential to our community. It's a vital part of our transportation system."

"But Pete Wilson is the Reggie Jackson—he hits the home run."

The system is scheduled to be operational in 2020.
Role

The materials are displayed for the key issues in the negotiations between the parties. The buyer, seller, and broker are present to discuss the terms and conditions of the sale. The buyer is interested in the fair market value of the property, while the seller wants to get the highest price possible. The broker plays a neutral role in facilitating the negotiations.

Mills acknowledges that the Bayside line, which cost far more to build per mile than any other MTDB project, is total not essential to meeting San Diego's transportation needs. But MTDB was not about to turn down
d the job of building it...

THE NAD 7225PE RECEIVER WITH POWER ENVELOPE

WHAT IS IT AND WHY DO YOU WANT IT?

Why should you consider buying a $1 watchable NAD 7225PE receiver? For $599, why not get yourself a better receiver with more power and more features? For the price of a good watchable, you can get a NAD 7225PE with the following features:

- Power Envelope
  - All NAD-7225PE receivers are designed to produce a peak output power of 400 watts for a short period of time. With a more powerful Power Envelope, you can enjoy higher sound quality and more instructive power at low levels.

- MSE Speakers
  - Speakers are included with the Power Envelope, which are designed to deliver clearer, more accurate sound.

- SOFT CLIPPING
  - The NAD 7225PE receiver has an output level that is designed to provide maximum dynamic range and clarity without distortion. The clipping point is set to 20% of the full-power output level, which is designed to prevent damage to the speakers.

- CONSERVATIVE SPECIFICATIONS
  - The NAD 7225PE receiver is designed to provide reliable performance for years to come. Its specifications are designed to ensure that it will provide years of trouble-free operation.

From the Mouth of the Abortionist

(L.A. Times Magazine, January 7, 1990): "There's a great deal of craft to this procedure," says James McMahon, who employs two staff doctors. He doesn't give doctors more than two abortions a day, she claims. McMahon has developed his own method for his patients' comfort. He arranges the fetus so that he can remove it from the woman's body. In the process, he "destroys" it by inserting a three-pronged instrument known as a curette and sucking out the fluid. McMahon says he has never had a patient in need of any further treatment.
