histories of publishing, although illiminaker Robert Snyder had devoted a brief documentary to the reminiscences (Always Yea' Catexise). For one thing, publisher and patrons, however sparkling heir personalities, are less likely to attract interest than artistic characteristics conducive to literary excellence. "I am nor introspective, nor do I ever judge motives, only actions ... I am 100 percent extrover:" But mainly she was eclipsed by Harry, Harry, too, was not much

Boston socialite. His accomplishments were modest, but his life was dramatic, magic, paradigmatic. It was this virtually archetypal quality that led Malcolm Cowley to culminate his Exile's Return: A Literary History of the 1920s with a brilliant chapter about Harry Crosby ritled "Echoes of a Suicide." And the same quality inspired Geoffrey Wolff to an equally impressive, full-scale biography of Harry, Black Sun (1977).

Anne Conover's Caresse Crosby From Black Sun to Roccasinibalda From Black Sun to Roccatimbalda does not have the depth of resonance of Cowley's and Wolff's portraint of Caresse's husband, partly because Caresse was less fascinarting and partly because Conover henself has a less comprehensive and profound view of her subject. But it is a good read, full of quotes and inecdotes, and it gives one a nice (if somewhat superficial) flavor of the person and the period. Listening to this biographer talk about her book would not be a waste of time.

Conover will discuss her biography of Caresse Crosby on Struckay, March 10, at 7:30 p.m. at D.G. Wills Books, 7527 La Jolla Boulevard. The evening will also include a screening of Robert Snyder's film documentar on Caresse. For further information, phone 456-1800. — John Peter Applebrance Introducing Reader Phone Matches. A Great New Way To Meet Single People. Free.

It works by providing you with a free personal matching ad in the Reader Classifieds. You will also receive a free "voice mailbox"— a phone service that allows you to record and receive messages from any touch-tone phone.

Phone Matches are: Simple. The Phone Matches system guides you, step by step. You can re-record your intro-duction any number of times—until you are satisfied with it.

Quick. It's not necessary to open a P.O. box and wait for letters. You can listen to your phoned-in responses any time, day or night.

Confidential. Only you can listen to your responses. Respondents wait to hear back from you.

There's no need to reveal your phone number or address.

So why not take the matter in hand and put yourself on the line today?

Turn to Section 3 for details.

Henry Ford said ... "Whether you believe you can do a thing or not, you are right."

Henry Ford made that statement many years ago, and there is great truth in it. It means that success starts with confidence in confidence in your ability to talk about what "you believe you can do," and you are judged every time you open your mouth to speak. What's the culer ! Maving a good vocabulary.

There are over 1,000,000 words in the English language. Most of us have a vocabulary of 30,000 to 60,000 words. How do you choose the right ones to learn next? Our surveys indicate that most people think that having a college level woodbulary has the greates! sailing the level of their everyday and professional conversation.

Dedicated to the idea that "It's not what you say, but how you say it," PASS inc. announces the publication of their new book.
