But archaeologists love a good mystery, and a few bones and beads speak volumes to them.

One of the most intriguing local mysteries is the relationship of the prenstone inhabitants of San Clemente Island with the animal life there. The Island (60 miles offshore from San Diego) was inhabited for nearly 10,000 years, until the last century, so there is plenty of circumstantial evidence. About 5000 evidence. About 5000 archaeological sites dot the island. What these sites have revealed will be discussed this Satunday in a seminar entitled "Of Shelfish and Foxes: Prehistoric Ethnobiology of San Clemente Island."

Jerry Fleury

Pro Audio Specialist, Assistant Store Manager A native of San Diego, Jerry is one of the most versatile sales employees in the chain. Prior to his position as Assistant Store Manager, he has been the Drum Department Manager, the Keyboard Department Manager and the Pro Audio Department Manager! A drummer since the age of 13, he also plays guitar, and specializes in live MIDI applications, recording, live P.A. and electronic percussion.

"I firmly believe that you have to be self-taught in this industry — sound engineering school just doesn't seem to do it for most folks. I read all the major trades religiously; this helps me to keep that professional 'edge'. Knowledge, professionalism and followthrough are important in musical equipment sales. I've built a large clientele based on these principles. Price is important, but service is what counts. I'm here 40 to 60 hours a week, to be here when I'm needed!

Six new books you can judge by their cover price.

Sure, you may not be able to judge a book by its cover. But why not its cover price? At Bookstar, you'll discover over 125,000 books discounted every day. Which makes for pretty good reading. And our even lower Readers Choice price transforms a good book into a great book. So stop by Bookstar this week. In our opinion, it's the finest bookstore in the world. But you can be the judge of that.

The write stuff at the right price
