A small group of people gathered outside a building in downtown San Diego, where a live performance was taking place. The audience consisted of a mix of artists, musicians, and enthusiasts who had come together to celebrate the occasion. The event was organized by Thrascher, a local arts organization, and featured a range of performances, including music, theater, and visual art. The atmosphere was lively and energetic, with people dancing and enjoying the performances. Overall, it was a great way to spend an evening and a testament to the vibrant arts community in San Diego.

Even People Who Know Nothing Else about Him Know He Cut off an Ear

Story by Judith Moore

When Esther, van Gogh's inner landlord, asked him why he behaved as he did, van Gogh replied: "Esther, one should do like the good God."
First You Pull Off Their Wings

BY JEFF SMITH

Second comes the time when you’ve got to stop pretending you’re still in love, and start getting serious about who you are and what you want. Every woman has her own way of doing this, but for most women, it means breaking away from the man who has been the center of their world for so long. For some, this means ending the relationship; for others, it means staying put and trying to make things work.

When You’re a Stranger

BY DUNCAN SHEPHERD

What do you think of when you hear the word “home”? For some, it’s a physical place, a place where they can lay their head at night and feel safe. For others, it’s a feeling, a sense of belonging and comfort. For still others, it’s a combination of both.

She Ate Her Own Snobbery

By ELEANOR WINNER

The Banker's Son
That's not the way you pronounce it.

The story of a family's struggle with a snob who, at one point,发财的表亲。她吃了自己的傲慢。

The conclusion of the story of how she finally won the battle against her own arrogance.

The lesson: The power of humility and the importance of treating others with respect.

GOURMET ON THE RUN!
Reader Phone Matches Success Stories:
Linda Schulman and Jim Greenspan

Linda: Jim answered my Phone Match ad in March 1990. He said it was the best one in the Reader.
Jim: It was!
Linda: I had already gotten 25 responses. I was handing some off to my friends.
Jim: I left her the shortest message. It intrigued her.
Linda: We had our first date at this great Greek restaurant downtown. I told him I'd be wearing a navy blue suit.
Jim: And I was the guy in the Irish kilt. She spotted me right away.
Linda: The lunch went longer than we planned. We really enjoyed talking to each other.
Jim: We dated through the summer. She asked me to marry her in October.
Linda: He tricked me!
Jim: I took her out to a romantic brunch near the ocean. I told her we should consider buying a condominium.
Linda: I said, "I can't just live with you. We'd have to... you know..."
Jim: And I said, "I accept!"
Linda: We got married on December 8 in Orlando, Florida. My mother gave us our wedding.
Jim: We're having another reception out here for our west coast friends.
Linda: Now I come to work with a smile on my face.
Jim: I was waiting for someone like her. I met my Ms. Right.
Linda: Stop.
Jim: She's like the perfect flower.
Linda: Stop!
Jim: ...Like the perfect bouquet...
Linda: He's being silly tonight.
Jim: Wait to come to our reception!
