If you're a regular player of Lotto (and, therefore, a regular loser at Lotto), it surely must seem like the odds of winning are 16% billion to one. But that's just a wagerer's illusion. If the odds really were that great, nobody would ever win. All his may also be a lesso; in not taking your tax refund as a cosmic sien.

Absolutely, Duke; but Lotto seems to have consumed so much of your time and thought, you really deserve an answer. First of all, lorget about base-01 or base-53 number systems. symbols would be correct of we had to mick our six numbers in the same order in which they pop into the tubes in the Lotto machines (that is, if we had to pick one specific number from 53, then one more from 52, one from 51, and so on). Luckly, order doesn't cownt in Lotto. So in selecting our of six numbers out of 35, our second number can be any of five from the remaining 52; then four from 51, and so on. Our formula then becomes 653 x 572 x 415 x 350 x 248 x 148. So divide your 16½ billion by our should get 22, 957.840 — nearly the odds Sacramento quotes for the 53-number Lotto.

The cliffs extended a bit further out. Point Loma and La Jolia Cove are virtually unashered.

Since I'm not in school, don't have a job, and have no real responsibilities or have anything I have to get done, my time just sort of goes. Sometimes my days go by in a lew minutes, and sometimes they seem to go on forever. People base their lives on time. People think a few moments are, a few proments about to go in never, report has a solid to go in never and to me, a few morners alread for me, it a constant now. General description of

The room is available immediately and has a private bathroom. We're two women professionals with active outdoor lifestyles We enjoy bicycling, volleyball on Mission Bay, scuba diving and comedy. Our house has a huge back yard with a pool. Although we like to entertain, late-night drunken brawls aren't our idea of a good time. We like to cook and if you're willing to help with the kitchen clean-up, great meals will come your way. We would prefer that you be conscientious, financially stable and a good communicator.

Please tell us about yourself and don't forget to leave your phone number and the best time to reach you. Thanks!
