Reader: From Detroit to San Diego...that's quite a change.

Carolyn: It sure was. In fact, the first conversation I had when I arrived was: 'So

R: Why Reader Phone Matches? Carolyn: I'm 39 years old, so it's hard to meet singles in my age bracket...especially when most of my friends are married.

R: What's best about Phone Matches?

PICTURE STORY

In contrast to the organized chest-thumping that will course down San Diego's main drag this weekend, the impromptu celebration pictured above broke out along Broadway on V-J Day — August 14, 1945. Barlier that day, at 4:00 p.m., President Truman's announcement of Japan's surrender was received on local radios; by 4:01, screeching sterns and auto borns had lured San Diegons into the streets by the thousands. Aside from the few who were dunked in the Horton Plaza Sountain, most of the celebrants remained "dry": the state department had ordered all liquor stores and cocktail lounges closed for the duration of that evening and the following day.

The best place in town to find a roommate just got better.

Introducing Reader Roommate Ads For just $16 per week you get the following three services:

A 25-word printed ad in the Reader which contains a general description of your roommate situation. You can now place and renew your roommate ad 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, from any touch-tone phone by calling into the Reader Roommate Line at 262-2066.

24-hour voice mailbox service which will allow you to leave a 60-second recorded message describing in detail your available roommate situation. If you're looking for a roommate who shares your passions for Cole Poter tunes, popcorn at midnight and volleyball games at the beach, this is your opportunity to say so and more. We will also use this recording to write your 25-word printed ad.

Respondents, who see your ad in the paper, will call into the free response line, hear you detailed mailbox message, and leave a message for you. At your convenience, you can call 262-9066, day or night, pick up your messages and choose who to call back.

Get response before your ad appears!
Soon after you record your mailbox message, it will be placed on the Roomante Hotilae.
Respondents who call the Roomante Hotilae will have access to your record message before the Reader even hist she stress on Thursday. If you record your message on Tiesday, you could be intereviewing potential roomantes not Wednesday, and collecting reto or Thursday!
