Reader Phone Matches Success Stories:

Jennifer and DeMelvin

Jennifer: It was last March. I was recently divorced, and Jennifer: It was tast March. I was recently divorced, and one day all the singles at my advertising department got together with the Phone Matches and said, "We've got to do this."

DeMelvin: I'm in the construction business and also divorced. I was just browsing through the Phone Matches one day and saw Jennifer's ad. It intrigued me.

Jennifer: The last part of his phone message to me was, "And I'm Prince Charming. Where have you been hiding?" I thought he was arrogant.

DeMelvin: I knew she was going to get a lot of responses ...

Jennifer: I got 85.

DeMelvin: ... And I was trying to be different.

Jennifer: It worked. After three weeks of phone calls between DeMelvin and I, we finally met at the Rusty Pelican in Mission Valley.

DeMelvin: When she walked in the door, I said to myself, "Oh my gosh! She's beautiful!" I had no idea how attractive she would be.

Jennifer: That's one of the great things about Phone Matches. You get to know someone from the inside out, first.

DeMelvin: By the time we met face to face, we already knew about each other's kids, our likes and dislikes.

Jennifer: Phone Matches is so safe! I used to go out to jazz bars, but if I met a guy in there, I didn't care what they aid ... how good-looking they were ...

I didn't want anything to do with them.

DeMelvin: With her being in advertising and myself in construction, Jennifer and I didn't travel in the same circles. If it wasn't for Phone Matches, I never would have met her. Jennifer: He really is my best friend.

DeMelvin: I feel she's the most beautiful person I've ever met.

Jennifer: Because we met through Phone Matches and spent all that time on the phone, we got to be friends first. DeMelvin: And should we get married, we'll have that as daily newspaper, many employers and employment agencies list only a small fraction of their available positions. The San Diego Reader Job Finders Hotline is different. It's a place where San APPLICATIONS Are Now Being Accepted For This week there are Diego employers can list all of their jobs. It's a convenient place for you to apply for them. And this state-of-the-art Job Finders job openings in the following categories:

Discover that finding a new job is no longer a full-time job.

Reach many unadvertised job openings in San Diego county.

Using your touch-tone phone, you can now hear 24 hours a day about positions that you are interested in. Prompts quickly guide you to up-to-date job listings in your particular field. New jobs are listed each business day and as soon as a position is filled, it is removed from the hotline.

WE TELL YOU WHERE TO FIND IT.

The best jobs go quickly ... and one of them may go to you. During a 4- or 5-minute call, you can listen to a few job listings in your line of work and, in many cases, leave a personal message for an employer which expresses your interest in a particular position. The employer doesn't have to wait for your mailed resume.

PICTURE STORY By the San Diego Historical Society

A rare glimpse beneath the petticoats of the grand old lady of Coronado: the Hotel Del Coronado is shown sometime in early 1887 during the framing stage of her construction. The hotel was built for a mere $1 million: $600,000 for the structure and $400,000 for furnishings. Over 2,000 men, many of them unskilled Chinese laborers imported from San Francisco, labored 60 hours a week for just over a year's time to breathe life into the sprawling, turreted hotel.

PRESIDENT BILL

By Wm. L. Brown @1991

A SPRESIDENT BILLS summer vacation at my brother-in-law ohn's place. This year, Mary's parents joined us. It was a bit hectic, but everyone pitched in with the cooking and cleaning, except for my father- and brother-in-law, who spent most of the time in John's shop. I spoke to them about the importance of sharing household responsibilities, but they didn't seem much interested. They, in turn, in-
