INFLATION: 1973, INFLATION

BY ROBERT E. HARRIS

The rising cost of living has hit many Americans hard, but some are hit harder than others. The cost of a gallon of gasoline, for example, has increased dramatically in recent months, making it more expensive for people to get to work, school, and other activities. This rise in prices has led to a decrease in the purchasing power of many individuals, especially those on fixed incomes. The cost of food, housing, and other necessities has also increased, putting a strain on the budgets of many families. As a result, people are looking for ways to stretch their dollars and make ends meet. Some are saving more, while others are cutting back on non-essential expenses. The overall impact of inflation is felt across the country, with different regions and communities experiencing varying degrees of hardship. It's a time when people need to be creative and resourceful in order to navigate through these tough economic times.
Over three times as many books as the average bookstore. End of story.
STRAIGHT FROM THE HIP
By Matthew Alice

The people's democracy has surely evolved to the point where the government understands that the people are the government. Yet, in the midst of this evolution, there are still those who struggle to grasp the essence of this new government. Some, like the old-time politicians, remain rooted in the past, clinging to outdated ideologies and policies. But others, recognizing the potential for a truly democratic society, are leading the charge towards a future that is more equitable and just.

We are currently experiencing a period of rapid social change, as traditional norms and values are challenged and reconsidered. This is a time of great opportunity, but also of great challenge. As we navigate this new landscape, it is important to remember that the foundation of our democracy lies in the people themselves. Each of us has the power to shape the course of our nation's destiny.

In the end, the success of our democracy depends on our ability to work together, to listen to one another, and to find common ground. Only then can we truly realize the promise of a democratic society where all voices are heard and all perspectives are respected. So let us continue to strive for a better tomorrow, remembering always that we are defined not by our differences, but by our collective capacity to create a better world.
"This guy's been in three of the hospitals that I've been in, sick, and treated in every one of them for alcoholism. He was a nice guy, but how many times do the taxpayers owe a guy like that?"

This image contains an advertisement for Temple University's Summer Program. It promotes the idea of the university being around the corner and offers opportunities to engage in various activities. The ad highlights the proximity of the university to the community and suggests that it is the nearest Family Fitness Center.

Additionally, there is an advertisement for CONTACT LENSES FOR LESS, offering double bonus days and special pricing for immediate replacements. The ad features a woman holding a football, emphasizing the theme of summer sports and fitness.

Finally, there is a promotional ad for a fitness center, emphasizing the importance of staying fit and active during the summer season. The ad suggests that the center is the nearest Family Fitness Center and encourages people to take advantage of the frequent bonus days and special offers.
Three men were killed in a helicopter crash in Vietnam on Monday night, according to military officials.

The victims were identified as Brig. Gen. William B. Lee, commanding general of the 1st Cavalry Division; Col. Robert S. Rumbarger, deputy commanding general of the division; and Maj. Gen. Robert L. Wood, commander of the 25th Infantry Division.

The helicopter, a HH-53 Super Stallion, was downed near the base where the three were stationed.

The cause of the crash is under investigation, but preliminary reports indicate it was due to mechanical failure.

The three men had been on a training mission when the accident occurred.

Lee, a veteran of the Vietnam War, had been credited with saving the lives of dozens of soldiers during his time in Vietnam. He later served as the commanding general of the 82nd Airborne Division.

Rumbarger was also a veteran of the Vietnam War and had served in multiple combat zones.

Wood was a decorated officer with more than 30 years of service in the Army.

The military said there were no other injuries reported in the crash.

The accident has prompted calls for increased safety measures in the aviation fleet.

In related news, President-elect Joe Biden is expected to announce changes to the military's top brass in the coming days.

Biden has previously stated that he wants to rebuild the military and expand its capabilities.

Reach many unadvertised job openings in San Diego county.
Because it is extremely expensive to advertise job positions in the daily newspaper, many employers simply offer them for only a small fraction of their available position. The San Diego Reader's Job Finders Hotline is different. It's a place where San Diego employers can list all of their jobs. It's a convenient place for you to apply for them. And the voice-activated Job Finders Hotline is offered only by the San Diego Reader.

Discover that finding a new job is no longer a full-time job.
Using your touch-tone phone, you can now hear 24 hours a day about positions that you are interested in. Please quickly guide you to up-to-date job listings in your particular field. New jobs are filled each business day as soon as a position is OPEN, it is removed from the hotline.

The best jobs go quickly ... and one of them may be yours. Being on a 5-minute call, you can listen to a free job listing in your line of work and, in many cases, be a personal interview for an employer which expresses your interest in a particular position. The employer doesn't have to wait for your resume and resume.

Free Job Finders Handbook

Everyone who calls 1-900-844-JOBS may request our free handbook which describes in detail how to job search for the reader. The handbook also includes information about San Diego's employment market, resume preparation advice and tips that will help you perform better in job interviews.
