Joyce: I placed my Phone Match ad during January 1990. I got six calls from nice men; Bob was one of them.

Bob: When Joyce called me back, we talked for a few hours.

Joyce: We were like teenagers; I felt giddy. Unfortunately, we couldn't meet for a week because I had to fly to New York to do the "Joan Rivers Show."

Bob: I wondered "who is this

Bob: We were married on March 31, 1990. Joyce: It was a beautiful wedding and my surgeon gave me away.

Bob: We wrote our own vows. Joyce: One of mine was to always remember to laugh at his comy jokes.

Bob: She's still laughing. Joyce: My advice to others is this: These ads can work and they're a safe way to meet someone, but it means taking a risk. Life is full of risks; you need to trust your inner voice

B FINDERS HOTLINE 1-900-844-JOBS

Dagad

YOU TELL US THE JOB YOU WANT ...

Reach many unadvertised job openings in San Diego county.

ause it is extremely expensive to advertise job positions in the daily rewspaper, many employers and employment agencies list only a small fraction of their available positions. The San Diego Reader Job Inders Hotline is different. It's a place where San Diego employers can list all of their jobs. It's a convenient place for you to apply for them. And this state-of-the-art Job Finders Hotline is offered only by the San Diego Reader.

WE TELL YOU

Discover that finding a new job is no longer a full-time job.

Using your touch-tone phone, you can now hear 24 hours a day about positions that you are interested in. Prompts quickly guide you to up-to-date job listings in your particular field. New jobs are listed each business day and as soon as a position is filled, it is removed from the hotline.

The best jobs go quickly ...

and one of them may go to you. During a 4- or 5-minute call, you can listen to a few job listings in your line of work and, in many cases, leave a personal message for an employer which expresses your interest in a particular position. The employer doesn't have to wait for your mailed resume.

Want to list your jobs here Call the Reader at 235-3000.
