Reader Phone Matches Success Stories:

Linda Schulman and Jim Greenspan

Linda: Jim answered my Phone Match ad in March 1990. He said it was the best one in the Reader.

Jim: It was! Linda. I had already gotten 25 responses. I was handing some off to my girlfriends.

Jim: I left her the shortest message. It intrigued her. Linda: We had our first date at this great Greek restaurant downtown. I told him I'd be wearing a navy blue suit. Jim: And I was the guy in the Irish kilt. She spotted me right away.

Linda: The lunch went longer than we planned. We really enjoyed talking to each other. Jim: We dated through the summer. She asked me to marry her in October. Linda: He tricked me! Jim: I took her out to a romantic brunch near the

Jim: And I said, "I accept!"

Linda: We got married on December 8 in Orlando, Florida. My mother gave us our wedding. Jim: We're having another reception out here for our west coast friends. Linda: Now I come to work with a smile on my face.

Jim: I was waiting for someone like her. I met my Ms. Right. Linda: Stop.

Jim: She's like the perfect flower... Linda: Stop!

Jim: ...Like the perfect bouquet... Linda: He's being silly tonight. Jim: Want to come to our reception?

PICTURE STORY

By the San Diego Historical Society

The three-legged fellow in the middle of the photo, transfixed by a doughnut held aloft, was born in San Francisco and hitched a ride to San Diego aboard a tramp steamer in 1887. Affectionately known as "Bum," the mangy St. Bernard also earned the sobriquet "Everybody's Dog" around downtown San Diego, his appetite for restaurant handouts and gin mill booze was legendary. At one time, his likeness graced all dog licenses issued in the county. His right paw (along with a goodly part of his tail) was lost beneath the wheels of a freight train. Bum died on November 10, 1898, at the county poor farm where he had been sent to "dry out."

The best place in town to find a roommate

For just $16 per week you get the following three service

A 25-word printed ad in the Reader

24-hour voice mailbox service

Respondents, who see your ad in the paper, will call into the free response line, hear your detailed mailbox message, and leave a message for you. At your convenience, you can call 262-9066, day or night, pick up your messages and choose who to call back.

Get response before your ad appears!
Son after you record your mailbox message, it will be placed on the Roommate Hotiline.
Repondents who call the Roommate Hotiline will have access to your recorded message before the Roade even hits the streets on Thursday. If you record your message on Tuesday, you could be interviewing potential roommates on Wednessiy, and oddecting men or Thursday!

To place your roommate ad call 262-9066 day or night.

2. Prepare to record your one-minute message (about 125 words) for your voice mailbox. Follow the sample message below

State your neighborhood first.

We will use the first 25 words of your verbal message as your printed ad in the Reader

ACAT BAN (MOD.) It was made 1 and 1 deep of the control of the con nonsense; she served as my chief of staff, But, from the beginning of my administration, a small, disaffected element in the media criticized her, and the staff of the staff questioning her creden-tials for the job. We de-- bunked their claims, showing that she was one of the top-rated science teachers in her school, and citing studies showing that the experience of motherhood was easily the equivalent of a Ph.D.
