Jennifer and DeMelvin

BLACK CARIBBEAN PROFESSIONAL, 32 seeks loving, loval, hopeless romantic Prince Charming type for special friendship. 37

Jennifer: It was last March. I was recently divorced, and one day all the singles at my advertising department got together with the Phone Matches and said. "We've got to do this."

DeMelvin: I'm in the construction business and also divorced. I was just browsing through the Phone Matches one day and saw Jennifer's ad. It intrigued me.

Jennifer: The last part of his phone message to me was, "And I'm Prince Charming. Where have you been hiding?" I thought he DeMelvin: I knew she was going to get a lot of responses .

Jennifer: 1 got 85. DeMelvin: ... And I was trying to be different. Jennifer: It worked. After three weeks of phone calls between DeMelvin and I, we finally met at the Rusty Pelican in Mission Valley. DeMelvin: When she walked in the door, I said to myself, "Oh my gosh! She's beautiful!" I had no idea how Jennifer: That's one of the great things about Phone Matches. You get to know someone from the inside out, first.

DeMelvin: By the time we met face to face. we already knew about each other's kids, our likes and dislikes. Jennifer: Phone Matches is so safe! I used to go out to jazz bars, but if ! met a guy in there, I didn't care what they .. how good-looking they were ...

I didn't want anything to do with them. DeMelvin: With her being in advertising and myself in construction. Jennifer and I didn't travel in the same circles. If it wasn't for Phone Matches, I never would have met her. Jensifer: He really is my best friend. DeMeivin: I feel she's the most beautiful person I've ever met. Jennifer: Because we met through Phone Matches and spent all that time on the phone, we got to be DeMelvin. And should we get married, we'll have that as

THE TRIP TO BOUNTIFUL.
Horton Foote has written the screenplays for To Nail a Mockingbird and Fender Mercies. His full-length play. The Tips to Bountiful (1953), pales in comparison to these later efforts. When he wrote it. Foote had yet to learn how ······ You couldn't have picked a better place to find a permanent or temporary job.

Introducing the San Diego Reader's

H d d d d d YOU TELL US THE JOB WE TELL YOU WHERE TO FIND IT.

Reach many unadvertised job openings in San Diego county.

Because it is extremely expensive to advertise job positions in the daily newspaper, many employers and employment agencies list only a small fraction of their available positions. The San Diego Reader Job Finders Hotline is different. It's a place where San Diego employers can list all of their jobs. And it's a convenient place for you to apply for them. (Employers call 235-3000 to list vour jobs here.)

Discover that finding a new job is no longer a full-time job.

Using your touch-tone phone, you can now hear 24 hours a day about positions that you are interested in. Prompts quickly guide you to up-to-date job listings in your particular field. New jobs are listed each business day and as soon as a position is filled, it is

The best jobs go quickly ...

and one of them may go to you. During a 4- or 5-minute call, you can listen to a few job listings in your line of work and, in some cases, leave a personal message for an employer which expresses your interest in a particular position. Some Hotline listings also appear as printed ads in the Reader; but you can respond to them on the Hotline before they are printed in next Thursday's issue

Tierrasanta God, this was back in high school. I knew my big SAT Justicol. I taken my big SAT test was coming up in the morning, but everyone said, if you don't know in ow, it is to all. End go out and much that. But go out and much that. A friend of mine, got some runn from her dad's lisquer calment, and we mixed it with some fruit of the control of the steep for a white. When I woke up I tried like hell to full everything in. I finished last. I ran out of time. Thank God I didn't do as well as I had hoped. I met my husband at my fifth choice college. Everything worked out for the better.

PICTURE STORY

By the San Diego Historical Society

Local aviatrix Ruth Alexander prepares to spin a biplane's propeller in this 1930 photo taken at the Ryan Flying School in the "Dutch Flats" area of the harborfront, near the present-day site of the Marine Corps Recruit Depot. Alexander, although having flown only one year, was already the holder of a women's altitude record and was preparing to attempt another: a one-stop, cross-country flight from San Diego to Newark. New Jersey. On September 18, 1930, she took off from a fogbound Lindbergh Field in a monoplane heavily weighted down with fuel, but failed to clear the summit of Point Loma. She was killed in the crash.
