Bob: When Joyce called me back, we talked for a few hours.

talked for a few hours.

Joyce: We were like teenagers; I felt giddy. Unfortunately, we couldn't meet for a week because I had to fly to New York to do the
"Joan Rivers Show."

Bob: I wondered "who is this celebrity?"

Joyce: When we finally met on February 2nd, I felt instant recognition; there was a San Diego Reader Phone Matches little thump.

Bob: We have a good ability to communicate: we became new best friends.

Joyce: We didn't want to play games with each other. That meant I had to be honest with him and tell him that thanks to surgery, I'd lost 225 pounds – that's why I was Bob: I accepted her and my kids did, too.

Joyce: We talked about getting married in July, but we couldn't wait.

Bob: We were married on March 31, 1990. Joyce: It was a beautiful wedding and my surgeon gave me away.

Bob: We wrote our own vows. Joyce: One of mine was to always remember to laugh at his corny jokes.

Bob: She's still laughing.

Joyce: My advice to others is this: These ads can work and they're a safe way to meet someone, but it means taking a risk. Life is full of risks; you need to trust your inner voice and follow it. Also, there are no Prince Charmings or fairy princesses. You have to accept someone, warts and all; no one is perfect.

Discover that finding a new job is no longer a full-time job.

Using your touch-tone phone, you can now hear 24 hours a day about positions that you are interested in. Prompts quickly guide you to up-to-date job listings in your particular field. New jobs are listed each business day and as soon as a position is filled, it is removed from the hotline.

and one of them may go to you. During a 4- or 5-minute call, you can listen to a few job listings in your line of work and, in some cases, leave a personal message for an employer which expresses your interest in a particular position. Some Hotline listings also appear as printed ads in the Reader; but you can respond to them on the Hotline before they are printed in next Thursday's issue.

The best place in town to find a roommate just got better.

For just $16 per week you get the following three services:

A 25-word printed ad in the Reader which contains a general description of your roommate aituation. You can now place your roommate ad 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, from any touch-tone phone by calling into the Reader Roommate Line at 202 9066.

24-hour voice mailbox service which will allow you to leave a 60-second recorded message describing in detail your available roommats situation. If you're looking for a roommate who shares your passions for Cole Peter tunes, popcorn at midnight, and volleyball games at the beach, this is your opportunity to say so and more. We will also use this recording to write your 25-word printed ad.

Respondents, who see your ad in the paper, will call into the free response line, hear your detailed mailbox message, and leave a message for you. At your convenience, you can call 262-2066, day or night, pick up your messages and choose who to call back.

Get response before your ad appears!
Son after you record your mailbor message, it will be placed on the Roommate Hotilor.
Repondents who call the Roommate Hotilor will have access to your recorded message before the Reade even hist the street on Thunday. If you record your message on Tionday, you could be interviewing potential roommates on Wednesday, and collecting reton of Tibunday!

To place your roommate ad call 262-9066 day or night.

State your neighborhood first. We will use the first 25 words of your verbal message as your printed ad in the Reader.

PICTURE STORY

By the San Diego Historical Society

Professor Horace Poole earns another $45 for his derring-do. It's July 24, 1898, and Poole has just leaped from a springboard 90 feet above the ocean near La Jolla's Cove Beach. In an effort to lure tourists to the fledgling Park Hotel (since burned down), the San Diego, Parcific Beach & La Jolla Rairondo contracted with Poole to dive into the waters adjacent to the La Jolla Caves. Poole had his imitators; two weeks after this photo was taken, Bert Reed, son of San Diego mayor D.C. Reed, was badly injured in a leap from the springboard. He died three months later.
