Reader Phone Matches Success Stories:

Denise and Michael Bryson

INTELLECTUAL STUDENT, 25, 6', 190lbs , treasures laughter and intelligence seeking woman, 18-30, radical liberal, to conspire with Movies, books, music friendship, 5

Michael: Denise moved out here last June from Missouri.

Denise: I didn't know a soul in San Diego. I picked up a Reader because I thought, "How do I meet people if I don't want to go around wearing practically no clothing and drinking heavily?" And I saw

Michael's ad.

Michael's ad.

Michael: I was put up to it by my roommate.

I was complaining about not being able to find an attractive, witty, intellectual woman. Reader

Phone Matches seemed like a good idea.

Denise: We met in the middle of the UTC mall.

I'd already met a few other Phone Matches dates safe like that. Michael: When I described myself to her. I left out the part about the chainsaw and knives. He made me laugh from Day One. A rije of Donald Trump books.

Denise: He made me laugh from Day
One. A pile of Donald Trump books fell on his head during the first date.

Michael: Luckily, they were paperbacks. I'm extremely eager for approval of any kind.

Denise: I couldn't believe how fast the time went! The date lasted until 10:00 that evening. No fireworks, though; I just though the was a nice guy. A perfect gentleman. Michael: After the first date, we played telephone tag for a week and finally got together to visit the museums in Balboa Park.

But it wasn't until the night we say on Park.

Denise: But it wasn't until the night we saw an art film at the Park Theater that I finally decided. "I really like this guy."

Michael: We got engaged in September.
Denise: And married in November. Right in the middle of the UTC mall, with nristmas music playing and little reindeer wandering around annoying people. Michael: We didn't want anything religious, so we found a nurse who's also licensed to perform weddings.

Denise: She's a dental assistant, a minister and a vasectomy nurse!

Michael: Sort of the ultimate in one-stop shopping: get your teeth cleaned, get married...

Denise: Since then, it's been wonderful.. He wines me, he dines me...and when we're broke, he burger and fries me.

Michael: We're everyone's living nightmare: "The Couple That Gets Along."

daily newspaper, many employers and employment agencies list only a small fraction of their available positions. The San Diego Reader Job Finders Hotline is different. It's a place where San Diego employers can list all of their jobs. And it's a convenient place for you to apply for them. (Employers call 235-3000 to list Discover that finding a new job is no longer a full-time job.

Using your touch-tone phone, you can now hear 24 hours a day about positions that you are interested in. Prompts quickly guide you to up-to-date job listings in your particular field. New jobs are listed each business day and as soon as a position is filled, it is removed from the hotline.

PICTURE STORY

By the San Diego Historical Society

It's October 30, 1956, and Vice-President Richard M. Nixon is all smiles as he cruises down Broadway to the U.S. Grant hotel for the final stop on that year's Republican campaign trail. It was a relatively innocent time in American politics, if only from the standpoint of security: the day before Nixon's arrival at Lindderph Field, the San Diego Union not only printed a minute-by-minute intinerary of his drive along Halbot Drive and into downlows, but also provided a handy map of the motorcade route along with the information that the VP would be transported in an open convertible. Nixon and President Dwight D. Eisenhower (not on the campaign trail due to a medical checkup) were re-elected by a landslide vote a week later.

environmental disaster caused by fossil fuels. Americans resisted my Transportation Depart-ment's programs for mass transit and other sensible alternatives. For example, our law forbidding use of autos for trips under one mile was widely derided and ignored. The lazy, selfish public wouldn't surrender the speed and trendy technology of their private cars. So, I directed John, my transportation secretary, to concentrate is department's efforts on developing a transporta-tion alternative that would appeal to the high-tech-addicted American people.
