STRAIGHT FROM THE HIP
By Matthew Alice

Dear Matthew Alice

Your stories are always a treat to read, but I must say that this one left me a little confused. It seems like you're talking about a hipster who moved to the city from the countryside and fell in love with the urban life. However, I'm not sure if you're actually discussing the fashion trends or something else. Can you please clarify your intentions?

Sincerely,
[Signature]

Dear Matthew Alice

I agree that it's important to stay on top of the latest trends, but I think it's even more important to focus on the things that really matter. Have you considered the impact fashion trends have on the environment? It's a topic that's become increasingly important in recent years.

Best,
[Signature]

San Diego Reader August 31, 1991
Story by Eyerre Eyerre

In the canyons and hills bordering Rancho Peñasquitos, where third world meets first, they wait in hiding. They carry aluminum baseball bats and kitchen knives.

Launched by the officers of the San Diego police department, the so-called "Beaner Bashers," a group of white youths, have been terrorizing the neighborhood for weeks. The goal was to root out suspected drug dealers and gang members. The outside world knew nothing of the operation until it fell on the ears of a black teen. In a short time, the story had spread throughout the slums of the city.

The operation started in July. Four youths were arrested and charged with possession of weapons and controlled substances. They were members of a gang called the "Crips." The operation was financed by a egovernment grant.

On the night of the operation, the officers caught a gang member in a drug deal. He was shot dead. The next day, the officers went on a rampage, arresting and beating anyone they suspected of being involved in drug dealing.

The operation continued for weeks. Hundreds of youths were arrested and beaten. The officers were later charged with assault and battery. They were convicted and sentenced to prison.

Their Own Reality

Phoenixians are proud of their own identity, a fact that is evident in the city's architecture, culture, and traditions. The city's iconic landmarks, such as the Phoenix Convention Center, the Phoenix Art Museum, and the Phoenix Zoo, are all examples of the city's focus on creating a unique identity.

Nightlife

The Thunderbird Bar is one of the most popular bars in Phoenix, known for its lively atmosphere and diverse clientele. The bar is located in the heart of downtown Phoenix, and is a popular spot for locals and tourists alike.

Phoenix Style:
An Introduction

The city's fashion scene is diverse and eclectic, with a strong emphasis on comfort and functionality. From the traditional cowboy hats and boots of the Old West to the modern, edgy styles of the Valley of the Sun, Phoenixians have a unique sense of style that reflects the city's spirit.

Water rationing is unheard of. Phoenicians are on their sidewalks, water their lawns night and noon, and employ billions of man-hours on periodic little attempts to engage in water sports.

Trolley Bash Is a First Class Success

By Sally Marston

The San Diego Trolley kicked off its new Front Classics service Saturday night with the "Ride the Rails" fare and anybody who anybody made the scene. And why not? All the minute late a ticket, "Ride the Rails" was the top party target of the season.

The Trolley, which has been a part of the San Diego scene for over a decade, has announced its new service, Front Classics, which will include special events such as "Ride the Rails." The event was well attended, with many people showing up to enjoy the night.

Jerry Brown Would Beat Bush, Poll Says

Barbara Colleen: Republican Edward G. Brown Jr. topped the list in the latest poll, releasing Tuesday afternoon. The poll was conducted by the Political Research Center of the University of California at Los Angeles, and it showed that Brown would beat Bush by 52 percent to 48 percent in a general election. The poll was based on interviews with 500 likely voters in California and was conducted from Oct. 20 to 22.

To Tell the Truth

BY JEFF SMITH

In high school, I recall an English class where our teacher assigned a short story by Ernest Hemingway. The story was titled "To Tell a Lie Would Break the Code of Truth." The assignment was to write a similar story using the same theme and style as Hemingway's. Later, as a journalist, I have often thought back to that assignment. The lesson Hemingway taught me about the importance of truth has stayed with me throughout my career.

To tell a lie would break the code of truth.

JEER OF THE X

I recently attended a Valentine's Day celebration at a local restaurant. The atmosphere was romantic and the food was delicious, but I couldn't help but notice something strange. Throughout the evening, there were two women who seemed to have a particular interest in each other. I couldn't help but wonder if they were secretly involved.

9IX's claim in "Two on the cutting edge of rock" is as a best band on the scene.

Godmother Entertainment

My name is Mary Anne Donohue and I wish to express my appreciation to the producers of the new TV show "Godmother Entertainment," which airs on NBC. The show features a godmother who helps modern single parents solve their problems. It's a wonderful program that has significantly improved my life. I have been a single mother for the past five years, and I often feel overwhelmed by the challenges of raising a child on my own. This show has given me hope and inspiration, showing me that there are others who understand my struggles. I recommend this show to anyone who needs support and guidance in their daily lives.

Second Coming: Thanks Up!

I was very touched by the story of a little girl who was adopted by a priest and became a nun. It's amazing how a simple act of love can change a person's life. This story has reminded me of the power of faith and the importance of giving back to others. It's a heartwarming tale that has inspired me to be more compassionate and understanding. Thank you for sharing this wonderful story.

God vs. Gina Arnold

I recently attended a seminar on faith and spirituality, and I was struck by the speaker's message. It was a powerful reminder of the importance of our connection to something greater than ourselves. I have struggled with my faith in the past, but this seminar has given me hope and strength. I am grateful for the opportunity to attend and am looking forward to attending more events like this in the future.

Good Neighbors, Bad Mojo

I was recently involved in a neighborhood dispute over a dog that was barking all night. It was a stressful experience, and I am glad that I was able to resolve it with the help of my neighbors. It's important to remember that sometimes situations can be resolved with open communication and mutual respect. I am grateful for the support of my community.

He Walked Right Here Among Us Lilliputians

I recently witnessed a remarkable act of kindness when a man stopped to help a woman who had broken down on the side of the road. It was a heartwarming scene that reminded me of the goodness that still exists in the world. I am grateful for the opportunity to witness this act of kindness and am thinking of doing something similar in the future.

This week, I fell into a series of mudslides. The amusingly immoderate, as the winds and the wet watery messes continued to sap the nutrients from the soil. We were not the only ones who found the trummings to be quite distressing. The mudslide that occurred yesterday was so large and so powerful that it was able to wipe out the entire community of La Jolla. The mudslide occurred around 3 a.m., and it was followed by a series of aftershocks that lasted for several hours. The aftereffects of the mudslide are still being felt in the area, and many residents are frightened to return to their homes.

It is important to note that mudslides are a serious issue in California, and it is crucial to take the necessary precautions to protect oneself and others in the event of a mudslide. In addition, it is important to stay informed about the weather and to be prepared to evacuate if necessary.

The mudslide happened in the middle of the night, and it was a frightening experience for all involved. People were caught in their homes and were unable to escape. The mudslide was so powerful that it was able to destroy entire structures, and many residents lost their homes.

The mudslide also caused widespread damage to the surrounding area, and it is estimated that the cleanup will take several weeks.

The mudslide is a stark reminder of the dangerous nature of California's weather patterns. It is crucial to stay informed about the weather and to be prepared to take action in the event of a mudslide. It is important to remember that mudslides can happen at any time, and it is essential to be prepared to respond to such dangerous situations.

The mudslide that occurred yesterday was a devastating event for many residents in La Jolla.

It is important to stay informed about the cleanup efforts and to support the community in their recovery. It is also important to stay informed about the weather and to be prepared to take action in the event of a mudslide.

BY THE MAN
WHO TOUCHE
THE GODDESS

Madonna, Leonardo — Of course,
considering how often she's seen,
it's inevitable that her photographs have eventually found their way to the full-page spread.

She's in Robert Duran, Duran, in fact, one of the most famous photographers in the business, and it's not hard to see why. His pictures have always been stunning, capturing the essence of the subjects
he's photographing.

This is the case with Madonna, too.
She's always been one of the most photographed celebrities, but Duran has managed to capture a side of her that's often overlooked.

He's managed to make her look more vulnerable, more relatable.

The photos themselves are stunning, capturing her in a way that's both intimate and powerful.

MADNESS AS STYLE

When no one could have thought the idea of a woman taking to the stage was an appropriate sight, she did it.

When her music was considered insane and provocative, she embraced it.

When everyone said it couldn't be done, she did it anyway.

Her style was a form of rebellion,
and she did it in a way that was both shocking and powerful.

HEAVY METAL WITH A BOZO WIG

Fans of the band: The most terrible moment of their career was when they were photographed
with a Bozo wig.

For the fans, it was a moment of terror,
and for the band,
their reputations
were on the line.

They didn't think they'd pull it off,
but they did.

The photos
were a hit,
and the band
was transformed into a total different entity.

Reader Phone Matches

Success Stories:

Jon

ARE YOU REALLY tired of sifting through endless directories, run after run, through an endless array of numbers, only to be put on hold? Well, that's over, because you can now make a single call and be connected to someone like Jon.

He's an investment counselor and a native of Minnesota, recently arrived in San Diego by way of Colorado. A typical week for Jon: "Hustling" for a glass of wine, a home-cooked meal, sitting on the weekend on at least one night at the biweekly Reader Bar Mitzvah.

Reader: Jon, you're a one-man comedy club at least once a week.
Jon: Absolutely. We should all laugh at life a bit more.

Reader: How do you like San Diego so far?
Jon: There's never to do in this town than anywhere I've been. You just get in your car and drive, and you'll find something.

Reader: What brought you to Reader Phone Matches?
Jon: I love to meet new people - simple as that. I knew several people that were meeting with success with the service, the cost was right, and it sounded like fun.

Reader: You don't seem the shy type.
Jon: No, I'm not. But to find that one special person, I feel have to use something like Phone Matches. There's a timing factor involved.

Reader: How's that?
Jon: Look, you're going to meet plenty of people in your lifetime, but the timing is exactly right. With Phone Matches, you're meeting people who are actively looking for you.

Reader: What's your Ideal Phone Match going to be?
Jon: A petite sweetheart, with gorgeous eyes, and a smile to match. Physically fit, independent, family-oriented. A great sense of humor and a positive attitude about herself.

Reader: What about high standards?
Jon: That's why I'm here. And still available:

At first glance, the building seems inviting enough. But there is barely a hint of what lies inside-incredibly behind its facade. Inside you'll find the heart of the action.

Walking past the doors, you'll notice a sign inviting you to "Find Love Here!". The sight of the sign itself is a testament to the building's charm. As you enter, you'll find yourself in a large, open space, filled with the sound of music and the smell of wafting aromas. The atmosphere is electric, and you'll feel drawn to the center of the room.

In the middle of the room, there's a large stage where performances are held. The stage is adorned with colorful lights and the sound system is tuned to perfection. The performers are energetic, and they seem to have a genuine connection with the audience. The music is a mix of genres, from rock to jazz, but it all fits together perfectly.

One of the highlights of the event is the "Find Love Here!" party. It's held every Friday night, and it's open to anyone who wants to find love. The party is themed around love, and it's a great place to meet new people.

The building also has a bar, where you can enjoy a drink while you listen to the music. The bar is well-stocked, and the bartenders are friendly. It's a great place to socialize and relax.

In summary, the building's charm is undeniable. Whether you're looking for love, music, or a place to relax, this building has it all. So don't miss out, head over there and experience the magic for yourself!

THE COMMITMENTS

"ONE OF THE BEST FILMS I'VE SEEN IN A LONG, LONG TIME. I CAN'T WAIT TO SEE IT AGAIN. I LOVE THIS FILM."

"THERE'S NO RESISTING 'THE COMMITMENTS'. A FILM WITH A SOUND SO POWERFUL IT COULD PROBABLY LIBERATE THE WORLD!"

"A 10! THIS IS FIRST-CLASS FILMMAKING."

"IT'S THE NEAREST THING OF ITS KIND SINCE A HARD DAY'S NIGHT AND THAT, DEAR FRIENDS, WAS 27 YEARS AGO."

"On October 22, 1971, I watched THE COMMITMENTS at the Motion Picture Theatre in Los Angeles. It was a night I'll never forget. With its masterful soundtrack and haunting performances, THE COMMITMENTS proved that even in a world where music and film are often seen as separate entities, there is still room for something truly transcendent. The film follows the story of a young man named James, played by McDowell, who dreams of making it big in the music industry. Along the way, he meets a group of talented musicians who share his passion for dance and music. The film explores themes of love, loss, and the power of music to bring people together. "THE COMMITMENTS" is a masterpiece, and I highly recommend it to anyone who appreciates a well-crafted story and fantastic music."

"THE COMMITMENTS" is a film that teaches us that no matter how difficult our circumstances may be, there is always hope if we have the courage to chase our dreams. "THE COMMITMENTS" is a film that reminds us that music can be a powerful force for change, and that we should never give up on our dreams. It's a film that will make you laugh, cry, and feel alive. "THE COMMITMENTS" is a film that deserves to be seen by everyone."

"I saw "THE COMMITMENTS" last night at the Motion Picture Theatre in Los Angeles. It was a truly amazing experience. The film is a celebration of music, dance, and the human spirit. The performances were outstanding, and the soundtrack was incredible. I highly recommend this film to anyone who loves music and dance."
