ADVENTUROUS, HEALTHY, CONCIOUS, over 30 with native backgrounds now, we met yesterday, 30-02, and ornado the sidewalks, neatly dressed, veteran truck, Swami and number by.

Steve: I missed the last scene when I first came in San Diego. It was disorganized.

Tracy: It's hard to get over in the waiting pretence. And I didn't want to date kids' ex-father. So I phoned a few moments ago to request that they get the last scene on the view. They said, "Why, this is great! Take it home and call them back.

Steve: I called my friend Roan. That talks you a lot about my social life.

Tracy: Your message was famous.

Steve: I made some smart-ass remark about throwing pop-corn.

Tracy: Steve and I beat a Corvette dinner.
He bought me dinner.

Steve: I thought we went Dutch.

Tracy: No way.

Steve: I hope so.

Tracy: There was never really a loss for words. We were being really silly.

STRAIGHT FROM THE HIP

By Matthew Alice

Dear Readers,

I was recently on an airplane flight, and as I was sitting in my seat, I noticed a woman next to me who was wearing a hip-length skirt. It was so unusual for me to see someone wearing such a style of clothing, that I decided to do some research on it.

As it turns out, the hip-length skirt is becoming more and more popular among women around the world. It is not only fashionable, but it also provides a sense of comfort and freedom. The skirt is designed to stop just above the knees, allowing for ease of movement and a more casual look.

I spoke with a few women who wear this style of skirt, and they all agreed that it is a great choice for anyone who wants to feel more comfortable and confident in their clothing. They also mentioned that it is a great option for those who want to avoid the glare of the sun or the wind, but don't want to wear long dresses.

I hope you enjoyed this insight into the world of fashion. If you have any questions or comments, please feel free to reach out to me.

Sincerely,
Matthew Alice

The late Ethel Joe King, respected connoisseur of the visual arts, and a well-known philanthropist of Boise, Idaho, died Friday. He left a fortune estimated at $20 million. The fortune will be used to endow a new art gallery in Boise.

The gallery will be called the Ethel Joe King Art Center. It will be located on the corner of Main and Washington streets. It will be open to the public daily from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.

The center will feature a permanent collection of modern art, as well as a rotating exhibit of works by contemporary artists. The center will also host regular lectures and workshops on art history and theory.

The Ethel Joe King Art Center is dedicated to the advancement of the visual arts and the education of the public. It is a fitting tribute to a man who believed in the power of art to enrich the lives of all people.
Ortho-K offers help for the nearsighted

Orthokeratology, or Ortho-K, is a corneal reshaping process in which a soft contact lens is worn overnight to reshape the cornea. Through a series of repeated wearings, the cornea is gradually reshaped to allow the eyes to focus more clearly. This means that you can wear your contact lenses for up to 12 hours each night without wearing glasses or contact lenses during the day.

Ortho-K is available to people who have been diagnosed with myopia (nearsightedness) but who do not want to wear glasses or contacts during the day. It is also recommended for people who work in hazardous environments or for people who have a history of eye injuries.

Ortho-K is a safe and effective way to correct nearsightedness. It is a non-invasive procedure that does not require surgery. It is also a good option for people who are allergic to contact lenses or who have difficulty wearing contact lenses.

Ortho-K is a great option for people who want to improve their vision without surgery. If you are interested in learning more about Ortho-K, please contact us at (619) 497-0122.

January Rains Wash Away Rancho Bernardo
But Drought Not Over Yet, Say Experts

A series of freak thunderstorms through late fall and early January caused some small meadow areas to fill with water. The California Department of Water Resources reported over 150,000 acre-feet of water in local meadows, which is higher than the long-term average. This will help Rancho Bernardo's residents who have been dealing with drought and water scarcity for years.

Candidates Take Note: You Gotta Have a Gimmick

A newly introduced campaign in Encinitas is using a creative approach to appeal to voters. Encinitas City Hall is encouraging candidates to come up with unique ideas to help the city. This could include community events, innovative programs, or new ways to address city issues.
