suggested, a copyright thing. 'Like them or not, cable companies aren't in the giverancy business.
So just calm down, get realistic, and accept the fart that you have to spend to see 20 remus of all those movies you didn't want to see when they were in the theater originally. That's just a

Dear Bud,
By now you have heard about me and the CPB thing. I suppose
I'm a big fat fool for giving up these bee-yoo-tee-full islands for the hell of public broadcasting, but if you want to know the truth, Patty is gick and tired of sunsate on the Indian Ocean is absolutely drying to get back into the social whirl of Washington and La Jolla. We tried having a white-tie dinner at Christmas (it was summer here—hell, it's always summer here) but the only people to show up were the sayor of Mahe and his wife.
He's Indian, she's half French, and they were both coked out of their heads. All through cocktails the mayor leaned close to Patty and kept asking her if she wanted to see his george Bush

Patty and kept asking her if she wanted to see his George Bush initation, Pive gin-and-tonics into the evening he thraw up on her lap. This kind of thing would never happen in La Jolla! One downing thing about the public broadcasting job is that I don't start till July, but already I have to spend a couple hours day fielding calls from job neskers. Seems everyone Patty and I know has a son or daughter who's trying to get ahead in public broadcasting. Can you imagine? Christ, that's like wanting to be a schoolteacher. To me, public TV and radio was the place you ended up when you were 45 if you weahed out of real broadcasting. I mean, look at Gloria Penner. She couldn't make $35 a week in the private sector.

I mean, look at gloria Fenner. She couldn't make $35 a week in the private sector.

Actually, I couldn't hire anyone yet even if I wanted to. The Bush people are still trying to figure out what our political slant is going to be. You can't do the all-American, patriotic, rah-rah-rah thing anyones because that'c considered racials now that the Buchanan people have co-opted it. Communism is gone, so you can't be anti-that. Of course anything pro-christian or even you can't be anti-that Of course anything pro-christian or even pointers on CPM's new direction, but a box Teveter at the White Nouse told we not to sweat it. I shouldn't expect to show un norm House told me not to myeat it, I shouldn't expect to show up more than ten or fifteen hours a week. That's even less time than I put in at Voice of America. Sounds to me like they want a figurehead. Oh well, better a figurehead than a talking head, as Ronald Reagan used to say.

"It's not like we made a lot of money, it's a guaranteed fact," said Santana's management the week after the show, though they were unable to give a figure. As of last Thursday, they had yet to resolve what amount would be going to the chaities and when. "We virtually broke even... and that's why we need the tax money. That's what the promise of the government was, that they would waive some of the taxes so we cougive some of the money to the kids.... Whatever we can [give is going, that's a fact."

"Nobody doubts it, but who knows?" expressed Maldonado. "No other reporter [in Tijuana] has asked about it as far as I know... and it's alot of money they made.... But everybody loves Santana very much, and nobody has ever thought badly of him."

694-1215 Second Chance! CREDIT PROGRAM"

While fans of small baked wafers may disagree, what is interesting about this 1878 photo of Joseph Winter's San Diego Cracker Bakery at 4th and H Street (now Market) is not so much what it shows, but what it doesn't show: the barely visible latticework of a small one-and-s-half story cottage in the picture's left background. That structure at 530 4th Street, dubbed the "Canary Cottage" for its yellow exterior, belonged to San Diego's most fanous (at least at the turn of the century) madam – Ida Bailey. Bailey's estimated 350 working girls were among some of the most active denizens of the town's Stingaree District; so active, in fact, that Bailey was known to hire a carriage on Sundays from the Diamond Carriage Company, place four of her more attractive girls on its cushions, and direct the driver to wheel the vehicle through some of San Diego's quieter neighborhoods. San Diego housewives were not amused by the roving advertising girnmick.

HEALTH CARE!

HEALTH CARE!

DON'T GET SICK.

DEMOCRATIC PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATES QUICKLY EMBRACED THE HEALTH CARE ISSUE WITH THE MORAL FERVOR OF ONE WHOSE PARTY HAS BEEN OUT OF POWER FOR TWELVE YEARS...

GOSH-PEOPLE ARE I DON'T GET IT!

REALLY WORRIED ABOUT PAYING FOR JUST WITHDRAW
THEIR HEALTH CARE! WHY DON'T THEY
MORE MONEY FROM THEIR TRUST FUNDS?

FORCED TO FINALLY ADDRESS THE ISSUE, PRESIDENT BUSH EXPLAINED WHY A SYSTEM OF NATIONALIZED MEDICINE WOULD BE A BAD IDEA-

SURE -- EVERYONE ... BUT THERE WOULD HAVE ACCESS WOULD BE. TO HEALTH CARE ... LONG LINES!
