West of Manhattan

South of Hearst Castle and Close to the Bronx

New York, New York, it's a helliwa town, the song (and most New Yorkers' pride) proclaims. The great Babylon of American cities, the true capital of the nation, and home to lots of very tall buildings. But no one denies that come summer buildings. But no one denies that come summer the Big Apple begins to putrefy a little. It isn't just the frayed tempers and the clogged, ever more disjointed streets suffering years of neglect. It's the weather itself, Guatemalan in nature, its crushing tropic humidity, its stifling airlessness seeming to lead inevitably to torpor or sadism. Or both. In July and August, therefore, even the most virulent Apple chauvinist indulges in fantasies of escape.

But where to go? To the east there's Europe, linguistically alien, snooty, disdainful, and very expensive. To the west, beyond all that awful farming country, there's, of course, California: the Napa vineyards, the San Francisco lotusland, Hollywood, the Yosemite and...well, San Diego. Linguistically familiar (well, almost), friendly, disdained, and very cheap. Could there be a moment's hesitation in choosing one over

—S. Moore, San Diego
Well, of course it's not the shrimp. It's the coctainl sause. Much more logical, no?
No? Humph, When did you people start getting so suspiciona?
Okay, okas, It is the shrimp, And the algae, And the other aquatic goodies the birds filter from the water they suck through those remarkable beaks. No need to sautic the marshy good tool of their feathers, though, Hamingon antural det is packed with caretonids, nature's coloring again; theselizement in produce hues ranging from the scarler in corals and tomatoes to the control of the start of t Afroway, if you're thinking about stocking your back yard with flamingos, you'd better be prepared with the proper grub or you'll have a pretty pale-looking flock after their first most. I checked with the bead flam ingo wrangler at the San Degas Zoo and got the zoo recipe for norbreveling brids. Take a bunch of Purina Trout Chow (chow) frortout, not chow from trout), add ground carrows, Kruse Flamingo Diet (a corameal and soy mixture), and roxanthin, blend it into a carrow of the second of the proper shade of pink. It's a strong scarlet dye. The whole process seems family reminiscent of the obbiology class trick of creating blue carractions by sticking white ones in blue-dyed water.

Dear Matt: When did jeans get so popular? Where did they come from?

It seems to me I've noticed that no matter what dental office you wolk into, they all smell the same. What is that smell?

It's probably the smell of fear, Marie, Well, no, it's mostly the smell of cloves. Eugenol, the essential oil in cloves, is an ingredient in a cementing agent, a dental antiseptic, and a topical pain killer. The oils from camphor and thyme also contribute to the ambient odor. Dentistry is a very pungent profession.

Ron Davis and Susan Lott-Davis Susan: Actually, we became good friends first, over several months, before we really "clicked." ADVENTURESOME, happy, intelligent, loving, creative, metaphysical sailor/explorer, 49, wants similar companion, non-smoking/drinking, physically active.

Ron: I'd been single since the mid-Eighties, living alone on my boat. When I decided to put the boat up for sale and move back on land, I didn't really know how to get into the social scene. Then I heard about Reader Phone Matches. Susan: I had a friend who got over 70 responses to her Phone Matches ad. She was busy breakfast, lunch and dinner! One Saturday morning I was screening some of her calls as a favor until suddenly I realized, "This is stupid! Here I am sitting with nothing to Go on a Saturday night ..." So I looked in the back of the Reader for myself. And Ron's ad just jumped out at me.

Ron: 1 got 12 responses. When I heard Susan's, I knew she Susan: I think I said, "Can Ron come out and play?" But when we met, there weren't any fireworks at first.

Ron: No, there wasn't a lot of excitement. We had a couple cups of coffee at a French bakery and just talked. I thought she was very nice, though.

By chance, two major La Jolla galleries are currently exhibiting paintings by important contemporary abstract expressionals. An institute would sweep from each other along Girard Avenue, the contemporary abstract expressionals tradition, and at the same time demonstrate that that fraction is still capable of producing impressive works of art. The tradition itself is a full eight decades old, its first thoroughpoing exponent having the contemporary of the contemporary of the contemporary in the producing impressive works of art.

In both formal terms and emotional expressiveness, Judith Foosaner (currently at the R.B. Stevenson Gallery) and Cha, Guo-Jun (currently at the Thomas Babeor Gallery) are at opposite poles of the range of abstract expressionism. Foosaner's oils are virtually all line, all drawing.

Cha, Guo-lun's carevases have no drawing at all: they are made up entirely of thickly textured fluctuating areas of color, with patnetely strokes and planks. The atmosphere of his paintings is dark, slow, heavy, brooding, the atmosphere of deep care the stroke of the plant of t

Thus, what appear at first to be simple, luckid scrawls turn out to be filled with indefinable, mysterious local events. In any passage, the lines and the suggestions of light, space, and substance are in fact in a state of tremulous fluctuation. The subtlety extends to the extremely limited palette, in which the drawing is usually confined to two principal colors (black, umber, and cohalt bluc, differently combined in the several painting), with indistinct variants of these bace playing deficately over the surface. As a result of these subde technical procedure, there are no fixed standards to judge by. Each painting creates its own seithetic rules. What one might think of as universal aesthetic standards — such as univ, variety, balance, richness, inventiveness — may be floated for expressive purposes. Critics are compelled to try to translate the visual elements into intelligible verbal discourse, but the most precise descriptions are fat too crude to convey the effect of a single fick of a line or wash of color. Finding adequate words to define the overall emotional or spiritual effect of the painting is an even more insuperable task, above all because that effect, not being anchored to any specific subject, idea, or symbol, will necessarily vary enormously from viewer to viewer.

Paintings and graphics by 16 New Zealand artists trace the development Zadarda artists trac ethe development of landscape art in that country since the arrival of European settlers after World War II. These postures artists used the landscape as a subject, transforming it and taking advantage of its familiarity to shock and surprise their viewers. Their paintings became whiches for personal comment, conveying in a variety of media the artists individual values through non-traditional renderings of land.

Have I Really Heard These Pieces Before?

REVIEW

Pianist Nicolas Reveles gave an amazing recital in Saint Brigid's Church (Pacific Beach). It was amazing not because it was so renationally good — that is what we have learned to expect from this artist — but because of the specific mights it offered into the two main works on the program Schubert's C Minor Sonate, D,95%, and Mussorgsky's Petrurer at an Enhibition. I will never again be able to hear either of these works without vivid memories of Receles's illuminations.

cither of these works without vivid memories of Reveles's Juliminating performances. As we know from his previous local appearances, Reveles is a superb technician. He has tremendous power, breathtaking agality, superb control of dynamic mannees, and a rich, blooming, floating, ringing tone (beautifully enhanced by the resonant acoustics in Saint Brigd's). But what is most striking about his playing is in originality— which are the striking about his playing is in originality— which the striking about his playing is in originality— which the striking about his playing is in originality— which the striking about his playing is not some solution or the striking about his playing is not to be tradition, every phrase has been re-examined and re-created in the light of an absolutely personal vision. Neither Reveles's Schubert nor his Mussorgsky sounds like anyone else's.

This take getting used to, It was at first disconcerting, in the opening movement of the Schubert Sonata. to encounter phrase after phrase shaped in a fresh, unfamiliar, challenging way, a way distinctly different from what one had heard in the greatest of Schubert performers (Schubek, kempffl, Berodel). In particular, there was a notable tendency to articulate the rhythmic flow through minute fucution of tempo, so that forward movement was marginally de-emphasized and there was an enhanced focus on individual moments of the musical discourse. But what might have sounded ccentric gradually revealed tiself as a profound interpretation of the work, an experience of its essence by a continual introspective plunging into its mysterious emotional depths.

Inwardness is indeed one of the primary characteristics of this supremely mysterious composer, with his inefable fusions of brilliance and melancholy, of whimsy and despair, and with his affirmation of the joy of life in which the intimation of death is not far away. It would be impossible to imagine a performance of this late C Minor continued on near page

This is not merely a device to underline musical unity (pithough it does fulfill that aim, with powerful effect). The structural device is pervaded with personal dramatic meaning — and it was that personal intelligence, that made Nicolas Reveles's Pictures at an Exhibition unique in my experience of the work, and so wonderfully memorable.

O God

On the Lollyaplacota tour this summer, Chicago's Ministry was both the surprise hit of every evening and each night's ruins-ion. Show after show, the band's appearance upon the immere playing fields of middle America served as a signal for sudden destruction. Huge crowds, seemingly satiated, him glat on their happy backs, all overheated from a long day's concert-joing, would litten for a moment to the introductory notes of the song "N.W.O." (New World Order) and then simultaneously get to their feet and riot.

YOU'RE NOT ALONE.

Why?

Because over 40 million Americans are affected with a sexually transmitted disease, otherwise known as an STD. Over three million are affected with GENITAL WARTS.

NCRC of San Diego is conducting a clinical research study on a new treatment for external genital warts.

Oualified volunteers will receive free medical attention which includes:

- · a free medical evaluation
- · free laboratory tests, including a PAP smear and HIV testing
- · free study medication.

If you are over 18 and think you have genital warts,

You're Single. We're Free. Why Wait?

You are provided with a free personal matching ad in the Reader Classifieds.
You also receive a free "voice mailbox"— a phone service that allows you to record and receive messages from any touch-tone phone.

HOW TO PLACE YOUR AD: To place a free Phone Matches ad, fill out the coupon below and mail or FAX it (233-7907) to us. (If faxing, please photocopy the coupon first and then fax it. The newsprint doesn't reproduce well). The deadline for receiving free Phone Matches ads is Saturday at 7am. Free ads are 25 words or less and run for two weeks. No free ads will be accepted over the phone or in person. Ads with more than 25 words cords 120 per additional word. We'll send you a 5-digit mailbox number (to be printed in your ad) and a 4-digit security code for exclusive access to your responses.

You may also place a late ad until 6pm Tuesday by phone (235-8200), in our office (1703 India St. at Date St., downtown), or by Fx (233-7907). The charge for these late ask is $20 for the first 25 words plus $1.20 per additional word. Ads placed by phone or by FxX are with Visa or MasterCard only, Limit one Phone Matches ad per person per two-week period.

HOW TO USE YOUR VOICE MAILBOX: After you receive your mailbox number and private security code, you can record your personal introduction. Call 527-1966, 24 hours a day, and follow the easy instructions.

Use your introduction to tell more about yourself than your ad does (see below for guidelines). Give your first name, but DONT give your last name, phone number or address. Make sure you ask your callers to leave their names, phone numbers and the best times to call them. You can re-record your personal introduction once per 24-hour period.

All introductions are reviewed by the Reader and go on-line within 24 hours.

To listen to your responses, call $271-1966 any time.

on-line within 24 hours.

To listen to your responses, call $27-1966 any time, 24 hours a day, and follow the easy instructions. You can replay any response or move ahead to the next one. If you choose to move ahead, the previous response will be erased, so have a pencil and piece of paper ready! You must have a touch-tone phone to record a personal introduction or listen to responses.

QUESTIONS? Call 235-8200. ext. 268.

Dear Dr. Perlman:
Is it normal to see things that other people don't? Sometimes I see my eyes pop out in front of me and carry on a conversation with each other. They mostly argue.

perlman

Dear A. J.:

It is not typical to observe one's eyes chatting.

It is typical to carry on conversations within one's head. Evidently, you may need a more concrete way of mulling things over. Graphically projecting a visual image may help you think things through more orderly. It may be to your advantage, however, to be medically cleared by your primary care physician, who could refer you to a neurologist or psychiatrist if appropriate. In the menatime, enjoy what is uniquely yours.

THE SPORTING BOX by Patrick Daugherty

It's one of those awful nightmates, a recurring dream that one has after a particularly evil, drunken run over to Yuma. You wake up in a strange, fifthy reson. Before you, a big-breasted swana with notine teeth, wearing a torn black nightic, squata at the end of a ripped mattress, orders you to take of fall your clothes. You've Soles. Now Wish has something in her hand. You look up. There are hundreds of spiders on the ceiling, by ones. Now you lean forward, harmore by a terrible throbbig in your skull. You feel warm blood on your lips. Your chest is exploding, you open your mouth to scream...

Hold it! It's not that nightmare, it's the other one, the San Diego

Hold if it is not that nightmare, it is the other one, the San Diego Chargers one.

Chargers one, "Ree, it's the nightmare, the one where our Lightning Boits play like they've played for the last ten years. Except this is read this is 31 to 0. This is move getting within 40 yards of the goal line. This is 31 to 0. This is moved getting within 40 yards of the goal line. This is 31 to 0. This is never getting within 40 yards of the goal line. This is 5 and per players giving up a tanding around in clumps with hands on hips, watching Mamir running backs trut past their positions. In short, this is virtuge Charger's football, it is also what happens when we catally play a team in the first tier after playing does all read long. This is an example of what can hip the stier playing does all read long. This is an example of what can happen when can be considered to the stier. The stier of the stier. The stier of the stier. Niners and Cowboys: The glamour game of the season, at Candlestick Niners and Cowboys: The glamour game of the season, at Candlestick, atter another week of rain. Which team is the muddler? This game is the real deal because either of these teams will crush Maimi or Buffalo in the Super Bowl, Dallas keeps, getting better. Niners looked uply last week against the Skins. Was that an aberration or is Young feeling the heat of his first playoff. Eleven years ago. Dallas played San Francisco at Candlestick, Park for the NFC Championship. Frisco had been awful for years, just then coming into the first tier. Dallas had been the premier franchies in the NFL America' Team. That game was the end of one era and the beginning of another. The Niners have been the cream of the NFL ever since, while Dallas carable of the the odds. This is the most intriguing contest of the year. How far has Dallas come! How long can San Francisco Keey it up.
