atory pressures became werwhelming, forcing Nelco of file for Chapter 7 bank-uptcy, says attorney Dennis turns, who represented the ompany at the time. Soon bankruptcy filing, while the corporation's total debt was estimated at $700,000, Burns says. Under Chapter 7 liquidation, the court was supposed to appoint a trustee to take over the corporation's assets, sell them, and then distribute the money among redditors. But that didn't happen.

Trustee Jim Kennedy set up the first auction of Nelco's assets in December 1990.
Court records indicate Kennedy had located a potential buyer for the Nelco site, a company said to be willing to clean up the property and pay the debts. But the sale never calls a "booby trap," state reg-ulators showed up on the day of the auction and told him he had to assume personal lia-bility for the task of removing thousands of gallons of toxic waste. Bankruptcy judge John Hargrove refused to eventy Kennedy from environmen-tal liability for the property and excused him from further duty.

After Hargrove's ruling, four consecutive trustees refused to take over the case. Peter Boyl, a bankruptcy trustee not involved in the Nelco case, says he's not surprised. California law makes accepting bankruptcy cases like Nelco's especially risky for prospective trustees. When a trustee assumes the responsibility for the property, he the owner, says Boyl. Tit is patently unfair to expect any trustee to take over a case and assume the liability of [contaminated] property.

If the contaminated property, the since a trustee to handle. Hargrove dismissed Nelco's bankruptcy actior in 1991, technically returning the ownership of the company to the Humphrey. Nelco still owns the site, although the Bank of San Diego issued a Bank of San Diego issued a cry in April 1992, according to Cal Western Foreclosure Service records. Court documents show Nelco owes the bank $181,995.

Last June, Cal-EPA proposed to fine Nelco an additional $117,000 for transporting waste oil across the border without permits. "They were treating wastes that they weren't permitted to treat. The order also orders them to remove the hazardous waste that is still on the premises, as well as to the premises, as well as to begin taking steps to decon-taminate their equipment," Allan Hirsch, a spokesman for Cal-EPA, said in a newspaper article.

But collecting this penalty and the $600,000 cleanup bill, will be difficult, EPA attorney Silverman says. Nelco Corporation — not the Hum-

Piety and Venality Co-exist on Plaza Santa Cecilia

by Bob McPhail photographs by Paul Stachelek

when the Plaza Santa Cecilia was constructed 12 years ago, Tiuana civic leaders envisioned it as a way to revitalize a part of downtown too close to the city's tourist corridor to be left to the accidents of fate. The theory was that by closing off the three-block diagonal connecting First and Second streets between Revolution and Constitution serumes and turning the short street into a pedestrian mult, the character of the place would improve.

them is as a line of demacation between the infamous Zona Norte and the rest of downstown Tijuana. Before the plaza was built, the street functioned as a regged edge to the Zona but had no special urban geography that would serve the permitten of the valuable tourist step; The plaza permitten of the valuable tourist step; The plaza has performed that role so admirably that last was the downston tourist information and assistance bureau was moved there from across the rester. The handsome new building may be involter with the environs of Plaza Santa Cecilia because, despite being a relatively recent addition to downstown Tijuana's cityscape, the plaza looks deeptively old. Whether by design or by accident, Plaza Santa Cecilia is just randown enough to Plaza Santa Cecilia is just randown enough to my pueblo in Mexico.

An official who was serving at the time with the Tijuana Chamber of Commerce recalls tall about "the Santa Geelia Plan" as early as the lat '70s. But merchants along the plaza place the date of construction as 1980-81. At about tha time, what had been known for years as Avenid.

Arguello, named for one of Tiju a na 's founding families, became Plaza Santa Cecilia, named for the virgin patron of musicians. The congested little lane with messy five-point intersections at either end was closed to traffic. The ensuing make-over was thorough.

The ground was laid with brown polygonal blocks. A grand brick archway with a performing stage was erected at the First Street entiance. There water fountains — two large ones at either end and a smaller one in the center — were installed. Trees were planted. Planters containing a smaller trees, shrubs, and wines were placed at

Officer's Statement Off. Joseph ID 3849 and I volunteered to cover Off. McCoy ID 4767 and Off. Mer-cado ID 4795 who were at scene and requesting assistance at [4700 block] foth Street. As we approached within one block Off, McCoy put out an ex-pedite cover. We arrived and as I got to the front door I heard a scuffle which was coming from behind the dining room area. The front door was locked but had a window. I could see an elderly lady standing in the dining room, apparently watching the other officers, but she wouldn't come open the door. Off. Boerum and I ran around the north side of the house, around the north side of the house, through the open side gate, and onto the patio area. I observed Offs. Mc-Coy and Mercado attempting to restrain a partially clad white male on the patio cement. The male, later identified as M. was extremely combative. Off. McCoy was trying to restrain M's hands by using his O.P.N's and Off. Mercado was across his and Off. Mercado was across his stomach attempting to hold him down by using his body weight. I saw a lot of blood around all three. Off. McCoy was bleeding from his head and I was unable to see Off. Mercado's face. Off. Beerum went to assist Off. McCoy on M.'s right side, trying to get him to comply to verbal commands in an attempt to handcuff him. I applied my O.P.N's to his right stable in an attempt us stop him from Kicking, twisting, and turning. I was able to put out a Cover turning. I was able to put out a Cover Now for additional units as we were still unable to get M. into custody. M. continued to fight with all four offi-

You're Single. We're Free. Why Wait?

Introducing Reader PHONE MATCHES, a Great Place to Meet Single People. You are provided with a free personal matching ad in the Reader Classifieds. You also receive a free "voice mailbox"—a phone service that allows you to record and receive messages from any touch-tone phone.

HOW TO PLACE YOUR AD: To place a free Phone Matches ad, fill out the coupon below and mail or FAX it (233-7907) to us. (If faxing, please photocopy the coupon first and then fax it. The newsprint doesn't reproduce well.) The deadline for receiving free Phone Matches ads is Saturday at 7um. Fire ads are 25 words or less and run for two weeks. No free ads will be accepted over the phone or in person. Ads with more than 25 words cost $1.20 per additional word. We'll send you a 5-digit mailbox number (to be printed in your ad) and a 4-digit security code for exclusive access to your responses.

You may also place a late ad until 6pm Tuesday by phone (235-8200), in our office (1703 India St. at Date St., downtown), or by FAX (233-7907). The charge for these late ads is $200 for the first 25 words plus $1.20 per additional word. Ads placed by phone or by FAX are with Visa or MasterCard only, Limit one Phone Matches ad per person per two-week period.

HOW TO USE YOUR VOICE MAILBOX: After you receive your mailbox number and private security code, you can record your personal introduction. Call 527-1966, 24 hours a day, and follow the easy instructions.

Use your introduction to tell more about yourself than your ad does (see below for guidelines). Give your first name, but DONT give you last name, phone number or address. Make sure you ask your callers to leave their names, phone numbers and the best times to call them. You can re-record your personal introduction once per 24-hour period.

All introductions are reviewed by the Reader and go on-line within 24 hours.

To listen to your responses, call $27-1966 any time.

on-line within 24 hours.
To listen to your responses, call 527-1966 any time, 24 hours a day, and follow the easy instructions. You can replay any response or move shead to the next one.
If you choose to move shead, the previous response will be erased, so have a pentil and piece of paper ready! You must have a touch-tone phone to record a personal introduction or listen to responses.

makes sense; who needs a captain on a ship of fools?

Look at some numbers (found in the Los Angeles Times):

Figure are the sports that men between the ages of 18 and 29 prefer. Football – 42% Basketball – 20% Baseball – 12%

Nuclsen ratings for baseball's Saturday Game of The Week 1982: 6.3 1992: 3.4

	While at the same	time per capita income:
LA County	1972 $3,899	1982 $8,317	1992 $16,149
Average Major- League Player	$34,527	$245,000	$1,085,1

1872 was appropriate, Palyers receiving a little less than 10 times average income. Td argue that 1982 was fair. You survey the top thousand people, in this nation of a quarter-billion inhabitants, working in any field - accounting, plumbing arracking—they're probably earning something like 30 times the antional average income. But a million oblars a year, for a 228 hitting right-fielder, in a game that is losing, losing, losing its appeal, is insane. And for a million oblars a young ran arithmed. For my million backs I want to see those players coming to the ball park two hours early and againg every little kiefs was to see them in the AUDs hospital wards, see them showing up a 50 charity events a year with unite on their faces, sut a shit-eating grin of, "Ao, shucks, asin't his one held of a deal I've got going for myself."

That has as much chance of happening as the Padres sweeping the World Series.
