A lot of people think ridesharing is hard. It really isn't.

It's changing from driving your car alone once a week to driving in a carpool. Or vanpool. Or taking the bus or trolley. Biking. Even walking.

It's changing because you know the facts: Ridesharing once a week cuts smog 20%. And half the smog out there comes from just turning the key in your ignition.

Rideshare. It's a change of pace that's good for the environment. Good for you.

he best collection of salvage yards in San Diego County can be found along the Mexican Border. Head south on 1-5 or 1-805, turn east on State Highway 905, chug up the incline onto Otay Mesa, turn left on Heritage Road, and it begins, a bonanza of junkyards. The names beckon. First Auto Wrecking, Middle East Auto Wrecking, Central Auto Parts, Ramon's, Montova's, Jalisco, Payless, El Leon, Miranda, Brothers, California. It's a lip-smacking variety of mechanical refuse.

If you nose around, turn left and right and left, follow increasingly narrow dirt roads un til there are no more roads, you will arrive at the front gate of Metro Auto.

There is the sagging fence. There is the small shack with the small hand-painted, blueand-white sign announcing 'Office," and below it, in smaller print, 'Oficina.' Inside the officina are two rooms: the larger, 12x12, has a dusty concrete floor and spider webs claiming four corners. It smells like a damp basement. A map of Southern California hangs on the far wall above hand-built wooden shelves. The shelves hold car parts, reference books (Hollander series), and a pyramid of empty Mariboro cigarette packs. The first thing you see when you turn around is a reclining naked lady centered on an out-of-date calendar. Below her, another wooden counter with phones, paperwork, ashtray. In the adjoining, smaller room is a surplus wooden desk, file cabinet, coffee pot, water cooler, ancient microwave, and fridor.

This is the daytime world of Metro's manager, Chad Vienna. You can find him here six days a week dressed in shorts or gray sweatpants. He's 5'10", 200 pounds, brown hair, barrel chest, bulky shoulders, clean-shaven, and has the look of a high school middle linebacker.

A Relationship Cannot Be Built On Drugs, Sex, And Motorcycles

Abe Opincar's article on Ecstasy brought back memo-ries — both pleasurable and disturbing — of a period in my life about seven years ago when I lived in San Francisco, a life considerably more on the edge than mine currently, though not necessarily pre-ferable.

I was introduced to Ecstasy by Chris, a boyfriend who never should have happened but did anyway in a sponta-neous moment of weakness when I'd been having a dry

Depressed Because You're Unemployed?

Lack of work may not be your problem. You may be suffering from clinical depression which is a serious medical illness, often treatable with medication. FREE research studies evaluating medications for depression are available to people 18 or older. Suitable volunteers receive medications, lab tests, physicals and visits with a brard-certified physician, all at no cost. If you are feeling sat, fatigued, guilty, have a loss of interest in daily activities, indecision, changes in sleep and appetite, please call for a confidential evaluation, M.-E., 10 am-4 pm.

You're Single. We're Free. Why Wait?

Introducing Reader PHONE MATCHES, a Great Place to Meet Single People.
You are provided with a free personal matching ad in the Reader Classifieds.
You also receive a free "voice mailbox"— a phone service that allows you to record and receive messages from any touch-tone phone.

HOW TO PLACE YOUR AD: To place a free Phone Matches ad, fill out the coupon below and mail or FAX it (233-7907) to us. (If faxing, please photocopy the coupon first and then fax it. The newsprint doesn't reproduce well.) The deadline for receiving free Phone Matches ads is Saturday at 7am. Free ads are 25 words or less and run for two weeks. No free ads will be accepted over the phone or in person. Ads with more than 25 words cost $1.20 per additional word. We'll send you a 5-digit mailbox number (to be printed in your ad) and a 4-digit security code for exclusive access to your responses.

You may also place a late a during m Tuesday by phone (235-8200), in our office (1703 India St. at Date St., downtown), or by FAX (233-7907). The charge for these late a sis $20 for the first 25 words plus $1.20 per additional word. Ads placed by phone or by FAX are with Visa, MasterCard or Discover only. Limit one Phone Mathees ad per person per two-week period.

HOW TO USE YOUR VOICE MAILBOX: After you receive your mailbox number and private security code, you can record your personal introduction. Call 527-1966, 24 hours a day, and follow the easy instructions.

Use your introduction to tell more about yourself than your ad does (see below for guidelines). Give your first name; but DON'T give your last name, phone number or address. Make sure you ask your callers to leave their names, phone numbers and the best times to call them. You can re-record your personal introduction once per 24-hour period.

All introductions are reviewed by the Reader and go on-line within 24 hours.

Phone Matches Success Stories: Randall Smith and Stacy Bermingham

VAGE PEACE

31, BLOND, BLUE-EYED, 6'1" professional, nonsmoker, non-sexist; never a Boy Scout (though I've helped old ladies across the street occasionally). Seeks engaging, articulate, attractive, politically-aware comedienne, 25-35, or best offer.

Randall: I work in a small office, and I never meet anyone new. I wanted a simple way to meet people who were interested in new relationships, but didn't require me to do weird things or spend a lot of money. I heard about Phone Matches from a friend and said to myself, "Sounds great!"

Stacy: He's constantly saying that to himself.

Randall: It was a challenge to get everything across in a 25-word ad. I began to get responses right away, it was exciting to come home from work, call in, and find messages in my Stacy: I happened to pick up the Reader to look for a job. I wasn't actively looking for a boyfriend...

Randall: She was passively looking.

Stacy: I read Randall's ad and laughed out loud. While I'm certainly engaging, articulate, attractive, politically aware...

Randall: Uh oh, I think we got her started on this again. Stacy: A week went by and I kept thinking about his ad. Finally I left a message on his voice mail.

Randall: We set a date to meet at the Pannikin in Del Mar. I was very nervous.

Stacy: I wanted it to be an open, public place. He might have been this strange person...which he actually was, now that I think about it.

Randall: We ended up having a three-hour dinner at II Fornaio. Stacy came back to my house and we talked until 3:00 a.m. We hiked in the Cuyamacas the next day, and saw a Stacy: Funny thing is, we didn't get sick of each other. I felt very comfortable with him, as if we were already good friends. Randall and I are very...

Randall: Brain damaged.

NO SI, TING ON STEPS

Stacy: Besides that. We're kindred spirits.

Randall: We spent the holidays together. She met my family. Stacy: By that time I knew I wanted to marry Randall. But he felt we should wait a year.

Do you have a Phone Matches" "Success Story" to share?

Randall: Then one day I said to myself, "No matter how long you search, you'll never find someone like Stacy. What are you waiting for?"

Stacy: We had a beautiful wedding at my mother's beach house. Randall: The sun was shining: it was a gorgeous day. I'll always remember it.

Stacy: Randall is the nicest person I know. He's not judgmental, he has a big heart, he's hilarious...

Randall: Aw, she used up all the good words and phrases. Stacy: We really feel we owe a debt to Phone Matches for bringing us together.

Randall: That's why we decided to do this ad. Phone Matches is one of those simple things that works great.

THE SPORTING BOX by Patrick Daugherty

George Foreman is fighting John Wayne's great-nephew Tommy Morrison on George Foreman is fighting John Wayne's great-nephew Tommy Morrison on June 7th for the entirely discredited WBG Heavyseight Championship, Fight location will be the Thomas & Mack Center on the campus of UNIV.

The funny part is that in the eternal dung heap known as professional boxing, this probably will be an excellent fight.

It's strange how you can't write about George Foreman without mentioning Muhammad All. There always seems to be a reason. On this occasion the seems of the property of the seems of

Payday For Big George

for the heavyweight championship. He's fought over 200 amateur bouts but for the heavyweight championship. He's fought over 200 amateur bouts but couldn't make the '86 Olympic team. Since turning pro. Morrison's fought 21 times in 13 months, soring 17 shookousts. But inten he's been a contender, his opponents have been better, and he has, at times, struggied. Heavyweight hack Carl (The Truth) Williams decled him twice in one round and Rey Mercer knocked him out in the fifth Before fa bleeder, somebody who loves to take four punches and then give one. He has a good left hook and a good heart: he will stand flat-footed in the middle of the ring and fight.

This could be the best heavyweight context of the year. According to Morrison's trainer, Tommy Virget, "All they need is an 8-foot-by-8-foot ring. Neither gav will back up. The whole fight will come down to dominance. As some point, one gay will begin to dominate the other.

The beating world will be looking at Visages.

Well, the greedy whiner, Larry Holmes, saw what Foreman was doing and jumped in Holmes has always been a saiveder but only recently has confirmed that he has alsociutely no pride. Two fights ago his opponent was the legendary, unforgettable Mr. Rockly Pepel. Holmes has always better was against 37-yea-old Ken Lakutas, who is 21-20-1, which is misleading nince over the last ten years Lakutas. The not washed up. I take care of mysclf.
