Richard: During the play, Rose was laughing. Her laugh is infectious. What was interesting for me is you hear talk about having this electric feeling between two people. On our first date, I felt that.

Rose: As we were talking, we realized we had actually once worked together. Our paths had crossed.

Richard: Four days after our first date, it was Valentine's Day. She sent me flowers. That was something I loved.

Rose: In the beginning, Richard was testing me. He took me window-shopping for furniture, to see if we had the same taste. Another test was walking througeud in Peñasquitos Canyon.

Richanf: Rose is smart as a whip. She's someone I can explicitly trust. She's a wonderful manager, very organized, just an all-around planner. Her kids are great. I'm taking stepparent classes. In fact, we've all planted a garden together.

Rose: Richard is very adult. He complements me well. When I'm frustrated, he listens to me.

Richard: Rose and I never would have met if it wasn't for this Phone Matches'* service. Most of us only have a small group of friends and work associates, and if you don't po to bars, your sphere is that much smaller for finding the right person.

Rose: Over spring break, we went to San Luis Obispo. We were listening to a saxophonist at the open air market. We asked the saxophonist's wife if her husband did weddings. When she asked, "Why, are you too getting marined?" Richard answered, "Yes." I thought, well would you at least ask me?

"We moved to San Diego when I was three [1919], my older sisters and brother, my mom and me. My dad was estranged from the family most of the time I was growing up, but I remember when I was just a little kid, up in the when I was just a title kid, up in the San Joaquin Valley, some fellow came over and picked him up and Dad took his shotgun and came back with a goose. That's the only thing I remember about Dad hunting, but it really excited me, and I think that was the thing that turned me on to hunting. It was the most exciting thing I'd ever heard of: go out hunting and bring back a goose, big white snow goose. "When I was ten years old, a neighbor, he was a sallor, a chief or

It is a matter of empha-sis and perspective, growing out of photography's inherent ambivalence. From its very beginning, photography has served as an unimpeschable record of visual reality, an undis-torting window on the world. If you and I know a great deal more about the people and places of our planet than even the most assiduous traveler could have known before this century, its all most entirely because of photography. I took caramet sauce and thin bits of chocolate. I took one home ($5.00) and ate it for two nights. While there, I tasted the strawberry layer cake, light enough to be a wedding cake, and a sensuous mocha layer cake. The Bakery also offers muffins, so you can go there for a low-cost breakfast with a view or a late-hour snack. I'm forever casting about for places that are romantic but low-cost, and while your mind wouldn't automatically turn to the Sheraton Harbor Island, you might consider it. For a restaurant offering American food, Harbor's ladge serves its purpose well. Also, I thanked God that I didn't

Introducing Reader PHONE MATCHES: a great place to meet San Diego singles.

You are provided with a free personal matching ad in the Reader Classifieds. You also receive a free "voice mailbox"- a phone service that allows you to record and receive messages from any touch-tone phone.

HOW TO PLACE YOUR AD: To place a free Phone Matches" ad, fill out the coupon below and mail or FAX it (233-7907) to us. (If faxing, please photocopy the coupon first and then fax it.) The deadline for receiving free Phone Matches" ads is Saturday at 7 am. No free ads will be accepted over the phone or in person. We'll send you a 5-digit mailbox number

(to be printed in your ad) and a 4-digit security code for exclusive access to your responses.

You may also place a late ad until 6 pm Tuesday by phone (235-8200), in our office (1703 India St. at Date St., downtown), or by FAX (233-7907). The charge for these late ads is $20 for the first 25 words plus $1.20 per additional word. Ads placed by phone or by FAX are with Visa, MasterCard, or Discover only.

HOW TO USE YOUR VOICE MAILBOX:

After you receive your mailbox number and private security code, you can record your personal introduction and listen to your responses. Call 527-1966, 24 hours a day, and follow the easy instructions. You must have a touch-tone phone
