Not A Shameless

Huckster
With regard to T.K. Arnold's piece about me ("Highlights," January 19), let me make the lowing points.

I was not Robert F. Kennedy's press secretary, Frank Mankiewicz was. On the article T.K. wrote about me for another publica-tion, it was he, not I, who sug-gested it. Also, there are as many books in my library on theology and literary criticism as on politics.

It's not true that I am a "shameless huckster"; I am often ashamed of my huckoften asharned of my huck-sterism. Or, is it merely that I am asharned of being called a "sharneless huckster"? T.K.'s piece about me re-minds me of the story that President Lincoln told about

President Lincoln told about the man who had been tarred and feathered and run out of town on a rail: "If it wasn't for the honor of it, I would have preferred to have walked." George Mitrovich San Diego

Many news accounts referred to Mitrovich as Robert Kennedy's press secretary, however, he in fact served as press aide during the 1968 presidential primaries. —Ed.

As a long-time Libertarian protester, i don't share the Hillcrest nobody's lust for a bloodbath which will make the 1968 Democratic Conven-tion "look like a 'love-in' by comparison" (Letters, January 19). I think there was a social phenomenon.

I think there was a social presuments that came out of that time that's never been studied. In lesbian social circles there might be five to eight fringe groups. On the fringe of a group you might have ten couples. And it was mostly a couple kind of social thing. You would go to each other's houses, and you'd have parties. Individual couples might socialize at the movies and dinner. But then the parties would all and differ. but then the parties would all encompass this one social group. the right, Chief Jefferson Keno Wilson. Gonzalez was San Diego's first policeman 22 years earlier when he was in his spry late 70s. (That may be his cane next to a nightstick in the right background of the photo.) Chief Wilson's career had a certain symmetry to it. He joined the SDPD as a patrolman in 1899 after a stint with the U.S.

arly San Diego lawmen, circa 1911. On the left, Captain B. Moriarty; in the middle, 'Chief' Gonzalez, age 101; on chief in 1999, Wilson ably served four two-chief in 1999, wilson the served and the service and year terms. However, he was forced to relinquish that post in 1917, allegedly a victim of "local politics." He immediately resigned from the department but was subsequently rehired as a common patrolman. The ex-chief served out his time with the department as a

Phone Matches Success Stories:

Victor & Alice Romano

TELL ME that chivalry hasn't died. Romantic, vivacious, Rubenesque blond, 30, seeks charming gentleman, 30-38, nonsmoker, sensitive, emotionally and financially stable.

Alice: I had answered ads before, but this was the first one I placed myself. It gave me the opportunity of making the choice, instead of having someone choose me.

Victor: I tried meeting people through a dating service—the kind where they guarantee you three dates a month—but it took a lot of time, and it didn't really work for me. I picked up Phone Matches' one week and saw several ads I liked. I left a nervous message for Alice, but I think she was forgiving.

Alice: I received 17 calls in those first two weeks. I got a lot of professional businessmen, which I liked. But after I heard Victor's message, I stopped really listening to the others. He told me he was passionate and compassionate. That stack out.

Victor: On our first date we went to an Indian restaurant in La Jolla. Then we walked around the cove for a while and watched the seals.

Do you have a Phone Matches'

Alice: I don't know if it was love at first sight, but there certainly was an attraction. It was amazing how comfortable I felt with Victor. He told me he had a crush on me, but I somehow knew he wasn' going to make a pass.

Victor: I figured I'd give it a couple of days.

Alice: The very next night, we walked along the beach at the Hotel del Coronado. That's when I knew I wanted to marry Victor, to spend the rest of my life with him. I was so sure.

Victor: It was more of a gradual ramping for me.
I thought carefully about it before I proposed.

Alice: We got engaged a year later, in Mexico. It was my 32nd birthday. The wedding was held on October 22, at Tom Ham's Lighthouse on Harbor

Victor: Neither of us have been married before, which

Victor: We talk a lot about the future, and how victor: We taik a for about the future, and how big our family is going to be. We'd like to have four kids: two of our own, and two we want to adopt. San Diego Reader Phone Matches

Alice: I've had girlfriends say, "I want to place an ad, too. Write one for rne." Well, it doesn't work that way. You really have to think about what you want. But if you're ready for it, it can happen. For

Changing of the County Guard

Duval County Attorney José Ramon Falcon, acting on a request of newly dected County Commissioner Giberto Uribe, has advised Uribe and County Commissioner Rene Prest that they will have to resign their school district posts. Uribe serves on the Freer Independent School Deirner board and been also the County of the County of the County of the County of the total County of the County of th

The Daval County commissioners held their regular meeting last Monday and continued where they left off at their previous meeting. The court made more personnel changes, including the termination of Poncho Hernandez as program coordinator. Hernandez had been replaced at the last meeting by

The county of Duval is embarking on a new era. The county has sworn in a new county judge and two new county commissioners. In an interview last week, newly elected County Judge E.B. Garcia li. outlined the three most important problems facing the county. 'Our tax base is dwindling,' said Garcia. 'Second, the problem with our landfills, Irailly, the condition of our Three San Diego men were killed last Thursday on U.S. Highway 59 when the pickup they were in collided with an oncoming 18-wheeler. A fourth man remains in critical condition at the Beeville Regional Medical Center.

San Diego High School has announced their January "students-of-the-month." They are Monica Cardenas and Tanis Pardon, Monica is the 15-year-old daughter of Alfredo and Genie Cardenas. Tanis is the 15-year-old son of Juan and Yolanda Pardon.

The Preer City Council, which has been plagued with financial strains for the past several months, agreed to pay off a loan from Brush Country Bank in the amount of $20,000, which they used to pay bills last year.

The cities of Sun Diego and Benavides could become considerably richer. The Regional Review Committee, which oversees distribution of community development blook gants each year, ranked both crites among the committee's top ten list for 1994–95 funding. Both crites received funds last year and presented strong encough arguments to be considered as.

Rocky was a regular goy, a loyal friend. The trouble was he was only a cat. Let's parcite, he'd say, and he'd pounce On his shadow on the wall. I have to admit, I didn't learn a thing, I often sat watching him sleep. If the birds rete to have a bit of fun in the yard, the opened one eye.

He was black except for the white gloves he wore. He played the pians in the parlor by walling over its keys back and forth. With exquisite tax he chewed my ear fil wouldn't got up from my chair. Then one day he varaished, I called. I poked in the bashes. I walled far into the woods.

The mornings were the hardest. I'd put out A stater of milk at the back door. Peekaboo, a bird called out. She knew. At one time we had ten farmhands working for I'd make a megaphone with my hands and call. Istill do, though it's been years.
