I was very shocked by a few of the letters written by some san Diego High School strudents in the article "You Don't realize that the pressure

brought on by the tabloidilie
media coverage of Proposition 187 and the negative comments about Mexicans, both legal and lilegal, were horrerdous. I teel for all these people.
So were not been soul bleck Ameron- whe means the charge. So this is another reason to refer to white and black Amer-icans as lazy. To do so merely icans as lazy. To do so merely perpetuates the racial separa-tion. As a 21-year-old black woman, I know what it feels like to be accused of negative stereotypes attributed to your race. You know these stereotypes aren't true, as do most people. So while those nar-row-minded, uninformed row-minded, uninformed racists promote theological ar-gument, while they spend their time creating asinine lit-tle fires and obtaining P.O. boxes, we'll be in the class-

Molesting Justice

By Thomas K. Arnold

Who bailed out John Michael Lewis? The fugitive Canadian sex offender, who has been pursued by San Diego prosecutors for more than a decade on charges of sexually molesting a 13-year-old boy, has managed to free himself on $500,000 halta-even though court authorities have found him destitute and hat appayers are paying for his attorney. John Hewisek, the chief of the compliance and extradition di-soon receivace, the chief of the compliance and extradition dis-vision of the San Diego County District Attency Office, is furn-ing. "It's unconscionable that a person is able to come up with $500,000 bail and yet have a court-appointed attorney, he says." I just feel like that's really twisting the system." Given his druthers, less they says, he would have asked for no bail in the case, "but Hewscher says, he would have asked for no bail in the case, "but no bail is limited to capital cases, so we asked for an amount we did-n't think he could make. But he did."

Hebborn's first important Old Master fake finally emerged: A Lamentation of the Three Manys over the Body of the Dead Christ. "When I had completed it in genuine old materials," writes Hebborn in his book. "I dam-aged it by cutting it to an irreg-ular shape and gave it to Graham to restore."

Smith says with this and many subsequent forgeries, he used a razor to cut the lumps
and shine off the modern Petilkan ink, then poured boiling water over it to take the newnes away.
London's highly respected Colnaghi Gallery fell for it, paying "something over a thousand pounds," according to Smith. It was the first serious money Hebborn had received for a forgery, igniting his 'golden ten years' during which he "ne-created" drawings by everybody from Sir Anthony van Dyck to Watteau to Bellini to Pitraneai to Watteau to Bellini to Pitraneai to

I LOVED YOU WITH ALL OF MY HEART

EAR JAMES, This is the sixth letter I have started to you for I never finished or mailed the one I wrote in 1988. I was too sick to write the year before, and here it is 1993, but this one I will finish. I want to tell you and maybe you can tell your mother if you see her, how responsible I am, along with many others, in your "unwarranted death," as a lawyer labeled it - 1 call it "premeditated murder." Did I maybe help save your life in the beginning to only help take it in the end? Did you die due to my wrong decision, or is it a part of God's plan, or simply fate? -I don't know. I will never get over your unnecessary death, and have At first I colled you "Jimmie" been sick for more than six years.

I met you October 9, 1956, for you were so thin exactly 30 years before you were taken to that horrible hospital. It and seemed like a boy. was on a Tuesday evening at the Blue Note around the corner from my office. It was my first time there, and I had stopped in out of loneliness and because they had a "happy hour." You, another man, and I were the only ones there. I think you bought me a drink and asked me to play a game of pool. I said I didn't know how so you taught me and let me win the game. You were so good you could have played "Minnesota Fats." You asked me to meet you there the next evening and go to dinner. I had lived in San Diego for six months and you were the second man I had met — if you could call the other one a man. I said I would meet you there. I certainly didn't go for you, you were so skinny, but there was something terribly nice about you - a nice single man.

The next day a friend came into town from Los Angeles, called

Guilty Of Greed

James Gray says "Guilty of Optimism" should have been titled "Guilty of Fraud" ("Letters," February 2). I would say this: they may be guilty of fraud, but there's a larger problem. The real problem is that they were guilty of greed and covetousness. And that is a trouble that we have in America that we have to work on if we are to be a successful nation. It's fine to go ahead and help your neighbor, but when you're only thinking of yourself, that is a destructive force in any society.

However, when you, via Mr. Opincar, drag someone else, namely Ashley Gardner, through this slime, now that' our/bis idea of a polite in-oduction to a filmmaking class? The mere presence of such an offensive innuend like kiddy porn (not to men-tion the homophobic, Das Kapital tripe) in the same arti-cle with Ms. Gardner would seem to border perilously close to libel (i.e., a representation that conveys an unjustly unfavorable impression)! As some-one who knows and has worked with Ms. Gardner, this seems especially malicious when paired against the count-less hours she has given in devotion to such important social causes as educational videos for children, Rachel's Center for Homeless Women, the Lisison League, and Catholic Charities, to name a few: causes that seek to reknit the badly tattered social fab-ric that the author so gleefully spoofs upon.

Who Will Rescue

The Rescuer?
Why was the "City Lights" piece in your January 12 issue entitled "Firefighters Fear Mouth-to-Mouth Diseases"? Is Thomas K. Arnold trying to intimate that other medical providers do not fear mouth ayperson trained in CPR.

finding himself in a situation requiring its administration.

I think that the risk of contracting a seriously debilitating disease through the exchange of body fluids is more than negligible. If a firefighter goe on even only one medical pe week in which he is at risk o on even only one medical per week in which he is a raised week in which he is a raised worth. On the interest week in the interest was a reason which we was a reason which we have a reason when the interest was a reason which we have a reason which we have a reason which we will have been a reason which we will be a reason which we will have been a reason which we will be a reason which will be a reason which we will be a reason which will be a reason which we will be a reason which will be a reason which we will be a reason which will be a reason which we will be a reason which will be a reason which we will be a reason which w to what the tone of the article seems to indicate, San Diego firefighters are not cowards cowardly or to be shirking their duty for wanting to pro-tect themselves. It's a case of "who will rescue the rescuer?" Por every member of rescue personnel who's put out o commission by an infectious disease, how many of the peo ple that it was their job to p tect are left without their ser vices in a time of crisis?

To judge from Thomas

Arnold's writing, firefighters are the only ones out there giv-ing mouth-to-mouth. Why weren't any non-firefighter paramedics talked to? I would be interested to know wha San Diego's EMTs have to s on the subject. But Arno didn't even research these to sources. He didn't provide any data from any of the ambulance services in San Diego that employ both EMTs and paramedics. Perhaps these agencies have done internal polls on their employees feel-ings about job safety and the risks involved with unpro-tected mouth-to-mouth. But, we'll never know, because Thomas Arnold did a shoddy reporting job. It almost seemed like a firefighter-bashseemed like a irrefigirer-oasi-ing piece

I don't have a vendetta against this guy, but this article sucked. You know, I mean, I'm not one of those readers who's constantly hated every-thing he's ever written. The fear of AIDS is a real thing, and, as long asit's not trans-and, as long as it's not trans-lated into fear of gays, it's not a bad thing. But Thomas Arnold sensationalizes it to the point where our firefighters come out looking like weaklings with horrible prejudices.

That ticks me off, because I'm proud of our firefighters.
SDFD has its flaws, just like any other organization. But, while I may not be the most while I may not be the most informed of your readers on the subject, it's my humble opinion that it's a good department, generally respected by other departments in the state and the nation. It's also my humble opinion that it could be a lor more respected by other departments in the nation if were the property of the department in the nation if were the property of the property

Phone Matches Success Stories: Larry and Danielle Yano

YOUNG 46, white female seeks someone honest, fun-loving, 40-55, who shares like interests in music, dancing, outdoors, walks, movies, travel, communication, touching. North County.

Danielle: I read the Phone Matches TM ads for a long time before I decided to try my own. Once I finally wrote it, I got this great feeling of relief. Then it became fun. I looked forward to seeing what happened. Larry: I dated people through Phone MatchesTM for a year, and I never came across anyone who wasn't a decent, hardworking person. I met a lot of really near people and even made some friends.

Danielle: Someone at work suggested that I take the word "touching" out of my ad, but I said, "Uh uh." I put "North County" in because I thought location was important.

Larry: I lived in Rancho Bernardo, and she lived in Escondido We were geographically compatible.

Danielle: The first time we met was at Denny's, for coffee I expected the meeting to last for 10 or 15 minutes. But Larry was so easy to talk to that I didn't want to leave.

Larry: It turned into dinner at Denny's. Danielle: I didn't have any money with me, so Larry had to pay.

Larry: She stiffed me on the first date. Dunielle: It's hard to say how the whole thing evolved. I liked his ideas, and we agreed on a lot of people issues Larry: We have the same value system, Things like religion, justice, honesty, real each other's ideas. Danielle: I wasn't looking to get married, but marriage was something we talked about early on.

elle: Larry's very gentle, and I can't rattle him. He's a good Larry: She does the laundry and I take care of the kitchen. The household work divided up naturally, without us even discussing it.

Larry: I think there's a lot of people, like us, who are so busy that they don't run across others they can date. Phone Matches The is an easy way to do that.

Datielle: It's also a good way to prescreen people. I think it's safer than going out with the guy next door. When I hear women say, "I'm into that desperate" or "It's not safe," I say, "Well, that's how I met my husband."

PICTURE STORY

by the San Diego Historical Society

n the beginning, there was this: Jack Kemp at quarterback, a coach named Sid, and the rickety confines of San Diego's old Baiboa Stadium. In 1961, the arrival of a pro football team breathed life into San Diego's sports scene as hotelier Barron Hilton moved his Los Angeles Chargers of the American Football League south. San Diego's City Council had the foresight to help him do it: they (barely!) approved $700.000 in renovation funds for Balboa Stadium, and added another tier onto its lower level. Previously, the stadium had served mainly as a venue for local high school

Here, San Diego fullback Charlie Flowers is stopped by Houston Oiler Lewis Johnson in an August 1961 exhibition game. The Chargers went on to begin their first regular season in San Diego with a particularly sweet (in hindsight, at least) 44-0 victory over the Oakland Raiders. In 1968 Hilton sold the Chargers to Gene Klein and Samuel Schulman for $10 million.

MATCHES

Introducing Reader PHONE MATCHES, a great place to meet San Diego singles.

You are provided with a free personal matching ad in the Reader Classifieds. You also receive a free "voice mailbox"- a phone service that allows you to record and receive messages from any touch-tone phone.

NOW YO PLACE YOUR AND To place a free Phone Matches" ad, fill out the coupon below and mail or fax it (233-7907) to us. (If faxing, please photocopy the coupon first and then fax it.) The deadline for receiving free Phone Matches" ads is Saturday at 7 am. No free ads will be accepted over the phone or in person. We'll send you a 5-digit mailbox number

(to be printed in your ad) and a 4-digit security code for exclusive access to your responses.

You may also place a late ad until 6 pm Tuesday by phone (235-8200), in our office (1703 India St. at Date St., downtown), or by fax (233-7907). The charge for these late ads is $20 for the first 25 words plus $1.20 per additional word. Ads placed by phone or by fax are with Visa, MasterCard er Discover only.

HOW TO WER YOUR YOUR MAKES

After you receive your mailbox number and private security code, you can record your personal introduction and listen to your responses. Call 527-1966, 24 hours a day, and follow the easy instructions. You must have a touch-tone phone.

QUESTIONS? Call 235-8200, est. 268.

God, I'm tired. Three weeks ago, I had a baby. We named her Angela after my husband Jack's grandmother. We also have a two-year-old daughter Rebecca. Everyone I know who has more than one child told me that having two is more than twice the work. They were right. It doesn't help that I had a cesarean section this time. Rebecca came out the old-fashioned way — headfirst through the birth canal.

This recovery feels much barder than last time. It hurst more and take longer. Instead of coming home 24 hours after the baby's birth as I did with Rebecca, I stayed in the hospital for three days, During those days, I coudin't wait to get home, to be with Jack and Rebecca again. Since then, I've longed to go back to the hospital.

115 Pounds Too Heavy for "Officer Friendly"

By Alfredo Cardenas

Torre who was killed in an automobile accident in Bee County on January 12, has filed a lawsuit against attorney Chuck Barrera, asking the courts to declare the contract she signed with Barrera null and void. In court papers, she claims that she signed the contract while she was "grief

*The autopsy export on 15-year old Juan Salas is not complete, but authorities have confirmed his fatal injuries were "consistent with a train accident... There was no foul play," said Duval County Deputy Bruno Valdez who is investigating Salas' death.

•In October of last year the Texas Education Agency (TEA) released "report cards on how Texas schools were doing in educating the state's children. These report cards generally show that Benavides and Freer Primary School students are doing better than state averages, while San Diego students lag behind both the two other David County schools and the state.

Appointments to county boards will top the agenda for a special meeting of the Duval County Commissioners slated for Wednesday. Commissioners will name two representatives to the board of directors of the Community Action Council of South Texas and four members to the Duval-San Diego Public Library Board.

*The promise of economic revival resulting from the state's substance abuse facility has yet to be realized in Diaval County. The county continues to lead the Coastal Bend region with the area's highest jobless rate for December at 11.2 percent.

Poem by James Tate

Jim Left The Pet Cemetery With A Feeling Of Disgust

As for the paralecte, the fit misde a snowball.
Music played, fine? Yould Health Book was read.
Mind your eggs. "was all it said.
I'm walked around the snowfeld and photographed eggs.
The deceased scerned pleased.
The deceased scerned pleased.
The deceased scerned pleased.
The deceased scerned pleased.
The shows the state of the pleased scerned pleased.
This is a town made out of nothing.
She said, "This is a town made out of nothing.
The size of the ward to the temp style." I replied.
Old Long Plain road, who wants to admit to that?
The one who chieded the stone tool pride in his work.
The trees, after taxty long witners, had never tooked better.
The trees, after taxty long witners, had never tooked better.
The trees, after taxty long witners, had never tooked better.
The trees, after taxty long witners, had never tooked better.
The trees, after taxty long witners, had never tooked better.
The trees, after taxty long witners, had never tooked better.
The trees, after taxty long witners, had never tooked better.
The trees, after taxty long witners, and never tooked better.
The trees, after taxty long witners, and never tooked better.
The trees, after taxty long witners, and never tooked better.
The constitution of the plant taxty long witners, and never tooked better.
The trees, after taxty long witners, and never tooked better.
The constitution of the plant taxty long witners, and never taxty long witners, and the control of the constitution of the plant taxty long witners, and the plant taxty long witners, and the long taxty long taxt

We hope to avoid everlasting mistakes.
We had a custom-made coffin for the boa.
It was fifty times longer than a pencil box.
As for the parakeet, she fit inside a snowball.
Music played, Jim's Total Health Book was read.
