Money To Burn

Herb King's attack on Juan Vargas caught my eye (Letters, February 8). I have carefully investigated Juan's background. He is a young man of the finest reputation and of im-peccable standards. Having had an enormous number of years of investigative experi-ence, I can say I did the best I could and found out al! that is needed. I would like to see needed. I would like to see Juan Vargas as the new con-gressperson of the South Bay. Mr. Filner is a gentleman whose interest in the South Bay is limited by his personai ambitions and delusions of grandeur. Mr. Filner is the son of a wealthy commodities brograndeur. Mr. Filner is the son of a wealthy commodities bro-ker in an Eastern state who had money to burn. Filner has played the academic political game for all it is worth. He is through, washed up. The peo-ple of the South Bay should ple of the South Bay should give Juan Vargas a chance to prove that he is as brilliant as his past life indicates. Paula and Lyle McCapes

LONELY GUY, white, 34, 6′, 240 lbs., Aries, likes rugged Jeep, four-wheeling, camping, movies, 91X, sci-fi. Seeking pretty, full-figured, sincere woman of similar likes for relationship. 2

Lyle: I gave up on women ten years ago, after a bad experie a relationship. I said to myself, "That's it. No more. Who needs them?" But then I got lonely and started looking at women again. I thought it would be nice to have someone to go camping or four-wheeling with.

Paula: At first, I was using Phone Matches" to find racquetball partners. But then I ran across Lyle's ad and thought, "Wow, here's a guy who doesn't think he's perfect. He sounds very honest."

Lyle: I worked on my ad for several days, to get it worded just right. I wanted mine to sound real.

Paula: A friend convinced me to call and leave a message I was terrified. I just said, "My name is Paula and here's my phone number Lyle: I received nine responses and dated five ladies, in the exact order that the calls came in. The last two were Paula and an 18-year-old.

Paula: He called me from work, while he was on a break. We talked for almost two and a half hours. We spoke every night after that, for about a week, before we met. He came over after work one night in his grubby clothes, riding his motorcycle. When he flicked up his face shield and I saw his eyes, I said, "Hey, I like this guy."

Lyle: I was attracted to Paula's smile. And she had the loveliest dark skin I had ever seen. I really didn't know she was black until she told me.

Paula: I had to go away the next day to visit my mother in Virginia. I returned to San Diego a week later and there were I 5 messages on my answering machine. Most of them were from Lyle, using different voices. He did Peter Lorre, Yosemite Sam, Mr. T....

Lyle: After the first time we kissed, it was etched in stone. I stopped dating the other women. I guess I'm not a man of the '90s. I believe in "one guy, one girl."

Paula: We met in October of 1991 and were married the following September. The ceremony was in Petersburg, Virginia, in the old City Hall that served as a headquarters for the Confederate

Lyle: It's been two years since we got married but it feels like a lifetime. I guess that's because I didn't really start life until I met Paula.

Paula: People are always in such a hurry, trying to pack so many things into one day. I'm almost 35 years old and I raced through my twenties. It wasn't until after we were married that I became infavatued with Lyle. I still get butterflies when I see him.

The Golden-Throated Ludwig

American Legion Oratory Contest

ast year, Adrian Ludwig gave a speech on the Constitution and the duties it placed on citizens of this country at the American Lecountry at the American Le-gion's annual oratory contest. He opened, 'The Constitution was the beginning of the United States, and our preamble to glory. Americans have fought and died for every word of it. Ideas change, ideals don't. The Constitution is an ideal; the Ludwig state champion.

"I used very similar sproach, for at least a similar approach, or at least a similar approach, go very far at all, because I wasn't very experienced in oration at their point. My style improved substantially, my large and a couple weeks of editing. For research, he looked to Ben Franklin and lames Madison, particularly Madison's Feder on the delivery of that. I used 'drastic' in some place, 'a drastic change in the American people,' I think the phrase was. A guy said it should have been 'dramatic,' which made sense, a negative connotation with It.

It was supposed to be a max of ten minutes. It was anywhere between nine-thirry up to maybe just over ten. If the audience is intered to respond more, and so you'll pause just to let them think about what you're saying. With an audience of the saying with a say of the saying with a saying the saying to understand that an audience may want something that isn't forceful, or may want some-thing subtle, and that the audience will appreciate that. With [the president], it's just matter of understanding, 'I don't need to be really forceful don't need to be really forceful to get my point across. All I have to do is explain it to you and understand that as an in-telligent human being, you will understand it."

Ludwig also admires ex-Governor of New York Mario Cuomo, because he "tends to Cuomo, because be big picture.' "

The best prayer is small, its eyes closed In odor it resembles nutmeg

If it can fly at all it's like the blackbird going out a few feet then back to the bulrush.

The trades have prayers: for a roofer a square of 3-tab means three bundles weighing 80 pounds each, carried up the long ladder, one at a time. It's dirty work. Mostly you hear the grunts, the huffing and Jesus Christ.

The poor are more disposed to prayer. It's a train they want to catch
Lots of bright, comfortable seats
A view toward the blue mountains

But it's not very pretty to see

As much as anything the song of the grey dipper pulling the light up stream

The candle that won't go out barely lights the room for monks everywhere it is already late

I think of clay and how the dead but not all at once Whatever I want can wait This is how I praise the morning

This was not one of them. On a purely tech-

Because of the singer's failure to support his voice properly at the di-aphragm, the high notes were regularly flat, and any abrupt drops into the lower register (and this music, with its atmosphere of decline and defeat, is full of them) resulted in tones that were dismusic, with its atmosphere of decline and defent, is fall of them? seathed in most with were distinctly sharp. Point three. The storyline, such as it is, and very much like Marienbad's, is riddled with equivocation (it could be this, could be that, could be something other), and it's not "about" anything as much as it is about the process of creation, more specifically the painstaking business of repetition and revision: repeated and re-posi-tioned words, sounds, songs, images, ideas. The story (such as, once again, it is) is itself concerned with an ex-plicit repetition: a cursed mariner, who may or may not have committed a hourble, critical and the committed a horrible crime, and who may or may

Last point. (Main point.) It must be at least in part because Robbe-Grillet thinks of a film as just (just) a film — thinks of a work of art, to put a finer point on it, as a work of art — that he pays such close attention to his film's properties as film. (Wherever there's an aesthetic concept in force, the French can be counted on to have the extra described concepts in one of the concept in the concept the neighborhood of music than of drama: more tone poem than para-phrasable tale, more evocative than expository, more open than shut. Granted, Robbe-Grillet's is also a very aird and parsimentious kind of work (though the deadpan humor in it often goes unappreciated or undetected), and I understand why most people have trouble sitting still for it. Or would have, if they were ever to sit in front of it in the first place. I, in case you hadn't noticed, am not most Reader PHONE MATCHES, a great place to meet San Diego singles.

You are provided with a free personal matching ad in the Reader Classifieds. You also receive a free "voice mailbox"- a phone service that allows you to record and receive messages from any touch-tone phone.

HOW TO PLACE YOUR AD: To place a free Phone Matches" ad, fill out the coupon below and mail or fax it (233-7907) to us. (If faxing, please photocopy the coupon first and then fax it.) The deadline for receiving free Phone Matches" ads is Saturday at 7 am. No free ads will be accepted over the phone or in person. We'll send you a 5-digit mailbox number

(to be printed in your ad) and a 4-digit security code for exclusive access to your responses.

You may also place a late ad until 6 pm Tuesday by phone (235-8200), in our office (1703 India St. at Date St., downtown), or by fax (233-7907). The charge for these late ads is $20 for the first 25 words plus $1.20 per additional word. Ads placed by phone or by fax are with Visa, MasterCard or Discover only.

HOW TO USE YOUR VOICE MAILBOX:

After you receive your mailbox number and private security code, you can record your personal introduction and listen to your responses. Call 527-1966, 24 hours a day, and follow the easy instructions. You must have a touch-tone phone.

QUESTIONS? Call 235-8200, ext. 268.
