The Turn of the Century Styles Of Adolphus Busch

Enjoy the American Originals, a collection of fine beers crafted in the style of Anheuser-Busch's first brews, at the upcoming tasting event we are scheduling to take place at our Sea World Brewery.

In the late 1800s brewery founder Adolphus Busch created a perter called Black & Tan, as well as the lager Faust and amber Muenchener. Unfortunately Prohibition brought an end to that great era of brewing.

Today we are re-introducing these three beers to a public desirous of robust and flavorful libations. Be among the first to try Black & Tan, Faust and Muenchener.

In our expert opinion, we believe the NHT model "SuperZeros" and their SW-2P/MA-1A subwoofer and power amp—total price of $940—sound significantly better than any speaker the others carry, regardless of price.

While these stores continue to carry "me too" products,

Phone Matches Success Stories:

Larry and Danielle Yano

YOUNG 46, white female seeks someone honest, fun-loving, 40-55, who shares like interests in music, dancing, outdoors, walks, movies, travel, communication, touching. North County.

Danielle: I read the Phone Matches TM ads for a long time before I decided to try my own. Once I finally wrote it, I got this great feeling of relief. Then it became fun. I looked forward to seeing what happened.

Larry: I dated people through Phone Matches™ for a year, and I never came across anyone who wasn't a decent, hardworking person. I met a lot of really neat people and even made some friends.

Danielle: Someone at work suggested that I take the word "touching out of my aá, but I said, "Uh uh." I put "North County" in because I Danielle: The first time we met was at Denny's, for coffee I expected the meeting to last for 10 or 15 minutes. But Larry was so easy to talk to that I didn't want to leave.

ielle: I didn't have any money with me, so Larry

Larry: She stiffed me on the first date.

Larry: We have the same value system. Things like religion, justice, honesty, respect for each other's ideas.

Danielle: I wasn't looking to get married, but marriage was something we talked about early on.

Larry: It was pretty mutual. We both knew that we had something special. We got married on October 2, a year and two weeks after we met.

Larry: We went through pre-marital counseling and learned even more about each other. It was a good investment. ielle: Larry's very gentle, and I can't rattle him. He's a good alancer for me.

Larry: I think there's a lot of people, like us, who are so busy that they don't run across others they can date. Phone MatchesTM is an easy way to do that.

POEMS

What the moutah sings, the soul must learn to forgive. A rat's as moral as a monk in the eyes of the real world. Still, the heart is a river pouring from itself, a river that cannot be crossed.

It opens on a bay and turns back upon itself as the tide comes in, it carries the cry of the loon and the salts of the unutterably human.

A distant eagle enters the mouth of a river salmon no longer run and his wide wings glide upstream until he disappears into the nothing from which he came. Only the thought Lacking the eagle's cunning or the wisdom of the sparrow, where shall 'turn, drowning in sorrow? Who will know what the tres know, the spidery petience of young maple or what the willows confess?

Let me be water. The heart pours out in waves. Listen to what the water says. Wind, be a friend. There's nothing I couldn't forgive.

The powerful aroma of hot olive oil, basil, and a double-pinch of cayenne for cooking mushrooms and green onions -skillet about to smoke, I'm cooking for you again, and, outside, the pungent odor of rain, rain rapping windows like tiny fingers drumming. Oil slides away toward the skillet's edge and cackles when I dump the onions in.

toes and fennel ($18.95). The bass was delectably tender, covered with chopped fresh tomatoes and fresh basil and served with carrots and cauliflows. The meal, which ended with the notoriously declicious roolo, was beautifully executed. Pood as architecture—layer upon layer of stuff, half of it in conflict with the other — is, I hope, a passing phase. The best cuisine is the simplest, the least tampered with. In that sense, my meel alt Tatto Mare was the most satisfying I have.

managed "not to look," nor did anyone ask what he ordered. This restaurant serves brunch only twice a year. Easter Sunday and Mother's Day, if you don't get there sooner, you may want to check out the brunch in May.

As a matter of conscience I went back to the Parkhouse Eatery on Park Boulevard. The chicken ranknouse catery of mark boulevart. In the chicken in white beans was good, and so was the salmon served on a plank. Still, I will draw a curtain over the vegetable tapenade and the house salad. Not only were the greens infused with pepper but black and gray pepper decorated the plate. You're on your own for this eclectic house. A Greek McDonald's Mission Beach Causeway, 1931. Spanning a channel of Mission Bay to allow access into the developing Crown Point area, the causeway was a $380,000 solution to developers' headaches. Financing for the venture was secured through property assessments allowed under the Acquisition and Improvement Act of 1925 commonly known as the "Mattoon Act." Although construction of the causeway began in 1929 with an anticipated summer of 1930 opening date, the work on the span was 1935 which erased the assessment district. delayed several times and ultimately completed in early 1931.

The Mattoon Act had originated in Los Angeles County, and was designed to provide much-needed roads across various independent taxing jurisdictions. However, what began as a great idea for Crown Point developers soon soured, as the entire assessment district became liable for debts of individual property owners who would not or could not pay their share. Investors avoided the area until the passing of a bond issue in the way I look and feel with a tan, but I want to care for my skin too

I've been around

My affair with Always Tan Tanning Resorts' incredible "Ultrabronz" sunbeds is now a permanent relationship.

I was tan in just 3 sessions and I only go back twice a month to always look fabulous. The "Ultrabronz" beds filter out the drying, harmful burning rays so my skin loves it too.

Don't be jealous. Call ..
