Non-Surgical Vision Correction FOR NEARSIGHTEDNESS

There is now a non-surgical treatment for long-lasting correction of near-sightedness (myopia) and astigmatism that is quick, less costly, and

This vision-correcting procedure was first utilized as a method of improving vision in the early '60s but now vision can often be restored with an accelerated program, in a matter of weeks.

Orthokeratology is designed to quickly reduce the patient's myopic condition and to improve vision with a succession of specially fitted therapeutic contact lenses which gently reshape the curvature of the cornea.

Advanced techniques and new technology in specialized contact lenses have revolutionized eye care in the field of vision restoration.

Special stabilizing contact lenses are also available to prevent or retard the gradual increase of nearsightedness.

Dr. Michael Satterlee is highly qualified in this procedure, and holds a fellowship certificate from the International Orthokeratology section of the National Eye Research Foundation, with over 25 years of orthokeratology experience. His practice is devoted to contact lenses and corrective vision care.

D. TRINIDAD HUNT
TO READ FROM THE OPERATOR'S MANUAL
FOR PLANET EARTH

TUESDAY + OCTOBER 22 + 7:30 PM.

In the form of a fable, D. Trinidad Hunt has written a book to help each of us reach our fullest potential. The Operator's Manual for Planet Earth is the story of spiritual beings from another world who descend to earth for a trial run in human bodies. Each being is ultimately trying to reach the Cave of Compassion, which represents the heart of every human being. D. Trinidad Hunt has given us a truly inspiring message, one of love in action, and hope for the human spirit.

GREGORY MAGUIRE TO READ FROM WICKED: THE LIFE AND TIMES OF THE WICKED WITCH OF THE WEST

THURSDAY + OCTOBER 17 . 7:30 PM.

Remember how much you loved the Wizard of Oz? Do you remember the witch we all loved to hate? Well maybe its time we heard the other side of the story. Both entertaining and enlightening, Wicked challenges our assumptions about the voracity of the things we are told to expect to believe. The world of Oz, at turns corrupt, savage, and inhumane subtly echoes the times in which we live today. Through dazzling fiction. Mr. Maguire dares us to question our own sacred cows.

grilled liver and onions because both were so "homey,"

The Sunday chicken and dumplings and chicken pot pie are the most popular items in the house. The all-wu can-eat fred fresh codifish with colesla v, french fries, and corn bread, served after 11:30 a.m. on Friday, is also a sellout. If you have a fax, Jane will fax you the menu; otherwise, just drop in and have old-fashioned, low-cost fun.

piked this place to pop the question to Cark.

The Cark Defined We've flip-flosped about it enough, God knows.

I brought her here because I have she knews lamb shanks. I do rate, but well, you know how it is.

From the start, it doesn't bode well. The pigeoms have got Carls in the Cark Defined on the run. Boun! Her polysyrene and the run bound and the run had to come with it.

got plenty to go.

Treturn to the bar. Add a couple of tomators, green peas for color, sunflower seeds, beets, croutions, oil, vinegar, few more potatoes. "Oh wow, you sure loaded down," says the guy this time.

"1.25 pounds. That $5.19."

With Carla's $4.99 and 39 cents tax it comes.

to $10.57. Shoulda shared the lamb. It would have been six bucks.

"Do you have, like, three bucks on you?" I ask Carla, Damn! Thought it wouldn't come to this.
We fill two polystyrenes with the iced water from the fountain and look for a seat outside.

the fountain and look for a seat outside.
We sit in the slanted fall sunshine at a white plastic table in Horton's first-floor plaza. Soon enough, Carla's offering me a taste of her lamb's shank. Rich, Briny. We get to pecking through each other's plates, and it makes a pretty satisfactors comple. factory combo.

This, I'm thinking, could be the moment.

This, I'm tinking, could be the moment.

"Carla, darling," I start, trying to reach for her hands. Then it happens. The wind. First, the napkins. Gone! Then the empty water cups. Flying.

As Carla tries to catch her plastic fork, her hand collides with a pigeon coming in to land. Shea-tully hit is is breast and claws. "Oh, God!" she says, holding her hand out as if it had leprosy. The breeze lifts up her take-out container and sends it sailing down to a clutch of waiting pigeons on the acround. She immuse un her knees, addithe ground. She jumps up. Her knees catch the plastic table. It tips over. "Aaaargh! That's it! Enough of this urban pic-nic bullshit!" she says. "I'm going inside for a coffee."

I find her at the European-style coffee counter.
She's on a high stool hunched over a coffee. At least it's in a solid glass mug. I see a couple of fear tracks. She looks blearly at me. "We can't go on like this, Bedford," she says. "This is bunch? Fighting pigeons, chasing polystyrene! This is life?"
She doesn't blink. I know what she's saying.

Here she is, stuck with this financial Yugo named Bedford. What's the future in that? I shift on my stool. I see they have cating tea. Grandma always said it settled the stomach. What the hell. I order a mugful. "You're right," I mum-ble. "Say, feel like getting married?"

PICTURE STORY

by the San Diego Historical Society

Tt is not recorded whether either George Herman "Babe" Ruth (left) or Lou Gehrig (right) ever spit on an umpire whose call they disputed — but it is highly improbable. Here, Babe and Lou flank Carl Klindt, promoter, in a San Diego visit that took place in late October of 1927. Professional baseball warmer states in the off season, playing winter exhibition games for their faithful fans.

As for the amusing team names on the gentlemen's uniforms? "Bustin'" seems apropos for any group of nine led by the "King of Swat," and, as for "Larrupin' " - well, at least one dictionary says to "larrup" is "to beat or thrash." Makes sense; also makes you wonder if baseball players in those days "barnstormed" around the fans in 1927 had to scurry to their dictionaries.

Get vour hair back ABSOLUTELY FREE!

I believe in my product so strongly and I'm so confident that you'll love having new hair, that I'm willing to give it to you absolutely free. (Value $1,600 - $2,700)

What's The Catch?

All we ask is that you let us take care of your future haircuts and styling needs. Simply prepay for a service plan which entitles you to 16 styling sessions at an average cost of $62 per session.

Although you may only pay $10 - $25 for a haircut right now, chances are youre not getting the results you want. Isn't it worth a few dollars to be really excited about what you see in the mirror every morning?
