CONTINUOUS ENTERTAINMENT IRRESISTIBLE

San Diegans awaken on the Friday morning of March 21, 1952, to clear skies, north easterly winds, highs in the 60s promised by afternoon. Harry Truman is president Ex-Navy pilot and ex-San Diego State football star John Butler, only 36 when elected in 1951, is the city's first San Diego-born mayor. Irish-Catholic Mission Hillis blue blood James Don Keller is district attorney.

Give Your Pause?

According to the December 13 San Diego Union, the city manager on December 12 proceeded to sell $60 million worth of bonds in the face of a threatened referendum by local citizens.

The city manager says he plans to bring out the bulldozers to the stadium January 2, before he even knows if the referendum qualifies for the ballot. In the same edition of the Union, editorialists blast the referendum but concede the folly of the city's scheme—

Union-Tribune.

Granted, some provisions of the stadium deal give us pause, particularly the city's guarantee of a minimum 60,000 ticket sales per Charger game. If the fans fall short of that number, the city will be liable for the difference. Another concern is how the stadium financing plan would be affected by the potential departure of the Padres when their lease expires in 2000.

them on, but we arrested them. Then, a few weeks later, all of a sudden the thing disappeared. I found out about it, because I had a few friends in the navy, I asked, "What in the hell happened?" And my pal from the navy told me, "The investigation you started there was getting up into the ranks a little bit, so they just put these guys all over the place to get away from it."

Robert Newsom did take Lait and Mortimer to the Cinnabar, which was a bar where homosexual men met. The 1951

Cinadav, which was har where homeoscaula men tet. The 1931 telephone book hists die bar as die gebruche book hists die bar as die gebruche book hists die bar as die gebruche bei die gebruche bei die gebruche die g the hotshots," Heritage laughed, adding, "or at least we thought and a lot of toe dancers hanging around. It was a homosexual hangoust, aqueer joint. One time a bunch of them got together and they took all their dothes off and they were going to see how far they could get down Broadway. They didn't get very far until they got all scooped up. A few days later, lansen, who was the chief of police, said, Fur the roust on that place. So we just damn near shut them down for a while."

Heritage never saw gay men dancing. "They didn't dare. That was agin the law. They'd get buseed. The vice squad would have arrested them. Two girls, nobody would have cared. But two men, that was a violation of city ordinance whatever-it-

Ed Stevens reme "Queer bars were not well thought of in those days. Men didn't dance with men. If you wanted dance with men. If you wanted to dance, you better go find a lady partner. So when we hit the door, if there was any dancing, it stopped. Anyway, the Jance floor there was the size of a tabletop. And if guys were doing all those masty things in the phone booth and bathroom, they were reptry discret about it, because. pretty discreet about it, because, needless to say, that kind of sex activity between people of the same sex was not only frowned upon, it was illegal. Any kind of handholding, kissing, anything like that, they were gone. Also, this bullshit about men being all gussied up as barmaids, I have no recollection of that. I do know Whathe did was check II Nar the door to make sure everyone was 21, because when we went in that place we routinely carded anybody under 30 just to fuck them around. We would also check anybody that check with those personally. We checked their health card. They had to have a health card to serve food and drink in an eating establishment. If they didn't have one, we would throw them in just."

Another retired pelicemant.

Another retired policensus, who went on the force shortly after the war, responded persibly when I read him Lait and Mortitumer's description of the Cinnabar. "I don't believe one iota of that. Most of the time I can recall, the Cinnabar was strictly of himsts to military personnel. Certain places the navy put off-limits. Off and on, difput oft-limits. Off and on, dif-ferent once would be off-limits. Anything that was known as a homosexual bar was off-limits, period. If a salor got rolled in one of the bars, for instance, why, the navy would put it off-limits for 30 days or 60 days and then it would be back on again.

The navy disciplinary boar would do that. We had meet ings together all the time with the vice squad, once a month."

All after pleasures as I rid one day, My horse and I, both tir'd, bodie and minde, With full crie of affections, quite astray; I took up in the next inne I could finde.

There when I came, whom found I but my deare. My dearest Lord, expecting till the grief
O pleasures brought me to him, readie there
To be all passengers most sweet relief?

O Thou, whose glorious, yet contracted light, Wrapt in nights mantle, stole into a manger; Since my dark soul and brutish is thy right, To Man of all beasts be not thou a stranger:

The shepherds sing; and shall I silent be! My God, no hymne for thee! My sou's a shepherd too; a flock it feeds Of thoughts, and words, and deeds. The pasture is thy word: the streams, thy grace Enriching all the place. Experied and flock shall sing, and all my powers the streams of the streams of the streams of the streams of the streams.

I will go searching, till I finde a sunne Shall stay, till we have done; A willing shiner, that shall shine as gladly,

Furnish and deck my soul, that thou mayst have A better lodging, then a rack, or grave.

Out-sing the day-light houres.
Then we will chide the sunne for letting night

Take up his place and right:
We sing one common Lord; wherefore he should Himself the candle hold.

As frost-nipt sunnes look sadly. Then we will sing, and shine all our own day,

And one another pay: His beams shall cheer my breast, and both so twine, Till ev'n his beams sing, and my musick shine

A Christmas Carol

In the bleak mid-winter Frosty wind made moan, Earth stood hard as iron,

Water like a stone; Snow had fallen, snow on snow,

Snow on snow, In the bleak mid-winter

Our God. Heaven cannot hold Him

Nor earth sustain; Heaven and earth shall flee away

A stable-place sufficed The Lord God Almighty

Enough for Him whom cherubim Worship night and day, A breastful of milk And a mangerful of hay; Enough for Him whom angels Fall down before,

he ox and ass and camel Which adore

Angels and archangels
May have gathered there,
Cherubim and seraphim
Thronged the air,
But only His mother
In her maiden bliss
Wozshipped the Beloved
With a kiss.

What can I give Him, Poor as I am? If I were a shepherd I would bring a Iamb, If I were a wise man, I would do my part,— Yet what I can I give Him, Give my heart.

1 1 62 BLUES Friday "Come Bark at the Moon"

A far at have been able to mo and of the far incential christian to the true life story of David Heligati, the true life story of David Heligati, that the story of David Heligati, that the story of David College of Mose in London 1.78 cm is ever been manner of capression; pared down the middle (a small fragment going to yet a third actor), with the usual phys-ical discord of such arrangements; nothing to unite them but a pair of glasses. (A receding thin will not be something a person grows out of.) In yocc and mannersin they blend more smoothly, with Taylor laying study groundwork for the older actor's virrecognize that the flashbacks are fast closing in on the movie's opening scene (but not nearly its concluding scene).
