Diary of a Sewer Repair

The Coming to Burlingame of Sewer and Water Group 78
Blood on the Mall
By the Opener

Two weeks ago, on Saturday night at around 8:30 p.m. in Plaza Bonita, three janitors mopped blood off the tile too early. We don't have any problems. The story is four
All out of proportion.

The blood ran, the snowy kids were told to do. I was trying to move around from corner to corner telling myself.

All the same, I watched, hopeful that no events followed things would break up to be needed. Moreover the whole project was undertaken for the very purpose of avoiding unexpected, urgent - that is today, expensive - repairs in the future.

NIXON'S FINAL BID, NUTS, AND BUTTEN

President Nixon's last gasp is being complicated as a result of the Watergate scandal. In many respects, this is a personal and political embarrassment for the President. NIXON's last days are marked by continued legal and political pressures.

Scott Returns to Direct The Old Settler

San Diego - Acclaimed director Scott Stone returns to direct THE OLD SETTLE. Scott made his Old Globe directorial debut with the highly praised Festival '92 production of \"Miss Julie.\" Off-Broadway and regional directing credits include Artifact, Ring, the gifts, The Other Richard, Kiss, and the world premiere of Some Sweet Day at the Long Wharf Theatre, and numerous productions at the wallpapers in New Jersey. Scott's directing work at the Old Globe includes \"Fences\" and \"The Caucasian Chalk Circle.\" Scott is currently the Artistic Director of the Utah Shakespeare Festival.

THE OLD SETTLE will play in the Cassius Carter Centre Stage. In the past, Scott has brilliantly used this space to create an aural feeling of being under the stars and the audience. In September of 1992, the San Diego Reader reported that Scott had turned Delphi into a \"theatrical sale.\" Expect nothing less from Scott in THE OLD SETTLE. The Old Globe will show the heart and essence of the African-American culture.

Wall Street Wizard Accused of Fraud

New York - The trial of Wall Street Wizard Victoria Phillips in New York, is expected to conclude as early as this week. Phillips was convicted of criminal fraud in late 2017, but the verdict was overturned on appeal. The trial has been characterized by intense lobbying from both sides.

Phillips was charged with defrauding a Kentucky county of $2 million, which included a large amount of evidence that the prosecution intended to use in only 10 days. Phillips has kept up a strong front so far. She recently told reporters, \"I will win this case.\" She only wants the public to know the truth. The trial will continue tomorrow and a verdict is expected as early as next week.

The Calm after the Storm

If Newman has lost a little of his former vocal control, the poignance more than compensates.

P

Gena Rowlands and James Caan are father and son in "A Woman Under the Influence," the touching, tautly constructed little picture that is now on the circuit, and given a lovingly done performance by Caan, who seems to have matured considerably since his movie debut in the 1960s. The role is that of a son, finding his way in the world after years of neglect and abuse at the hands of his mother, played by Rowlands. The film is a study in understatement and the power of silent moments, and it is a testament to the actors' abilities. Thedirection is by László Nemes, and the production design is by Adam Stockhausen. The movie is a powerful and moving portrait of a family in crisis, and it is a reminder of the importance of family and the need for compassion and understanding in times of stress and turmoil.

We Bless This House with a Power Outage

By Anne Albright

Kid Stuff

We bless this house with prayer and food and friends. Last month we moved from Balboa to the san Diego mountains. Everything was translated, including my husband's office. The only furniture we had was a table and six chairs. We had no refrigerator and no television.

Yesterday, we received a package from the refrigerator movers. They had arrived early and were working hard. We were very grateful.

For the next ten minutes, we gathered around the package, laughing and talking. We finally opened it and looked inside.
It was filled with food and biscuits. We couldn't believe it!

The next day, we went to the supermarket and bought enough food to last us a month. We were so grateful.

The following week, we received another package.
It contained a stove and refrigerator. We couldn't believe our luck.

Last week, we received another package. This one
contained a washing machine and dryer. We were so grateful.

And today, we received
another package. This one contained a bed and nightstand. We couldn't
believe our luck.

The power was restored yesterday morning. We were so grateful.

For a moment, the house
was completely silent. No noise from the refrigerator.

So, it's a good thing we were patient. We were so grateful.
